HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, February 27, 1929.

The House met at 10.00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Aaron B. Hess) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Dr. Martin W. Schweitzer, offered the following prayer:

Eternal Father, Thou who are the light of all hearts that see Thee, the light of all souls that love Thee, the strength of all thoughts that seek Thee, grant us now Thy blessing as we are met here in this place this morning. We pray for the ever-abiding presence of the Holy Spirit in our hearts. Rest upon us, O Spirit of Love, and chase away all anger and envy from our souls. Almighty God, Ruler of all nations, Judge of all men, we humbly beseech Thy blessing upon him who has been called by the voice of the people to be the Chief Magistrate of our beloved country. Endue him with wisdom that in righteousness and in charity he may rule over us. Guide him in the way of justice, that we and all nations may have peace. We ask it in the name of him who is the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. Ede, seconded by Mr. Yerg, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

RESOLUTION.

UNEMPLOYMENT.

Mr. SOWERS offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In the House of Representatives, February 27th, 1929.

Whereas, Many men and women are out of employment and are ready and willing and anxious to work and are unable to obtain employment, and

Whereas, The services and labor of such men and women, by reason of idleness, are lost to the Commonwealth and the people at large to the great loss to ourselves and to posterity, therefore be it

Resolved, That the authorities of the Commonwealth and the various counties, cities and other municipalities therein, are urged to speed the work on all public improvements as rapidly as possible to the end that such persons may be furnished employment

RESOLUTION.

THANKING AUDITOR GENERAL MARTIN.

Mr. BART RICHARDS offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for it adoption.

The resolution was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, February 27, 1929.

Whereas, Through the courtesy of the Chairman of the Republican State Committee, General Edward Martin, each member of the House of Representatives has been presented with a biography of the President-Elect of the United States, the Honorable Herbert Hoover.

Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives, Session of 1929, extend to General Martin its appreciation of this act of courtesy, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to him.

The resolution was adopted.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have received a letter from the County Superintendent of public schools in reference to the question of the underprivileged child who does not have equal educational opportunities, and I would like to read that letter to the House and hope that you will give it your favorable consideration; the letter is as follows:

Clearfield, Pa., February 18, 1929.

Hon. Jno. D. Walker.
Dear Mr. Walker:

Permit me to call your attention to the imperative need for further state aid to many of the school districts in Pennsylvania. The slogan "Equal education opportunity" for all the children of our state is not being administered under the present amount of state aid given our schools; it is inadequate to maintain a minimum school program for these poorer districts. Many of the rural districts are now taxed to the legal limit of millage and some above that to meet the current running expenses of our schools, and in addition to this many are bonded to the maximum legal limit.

About one-half of the school districts in Clearfield County have levied for the present school term 35 or more mills for schools purposes, and many of these will go into debt still further to meet the current expenses for this term, thus not being able to reduce their bonded indebtedness one cent during the present year. In one district the teachers have not received any pay for teaching since the end of September; and some other districts can not meet their monthly payments as they become due.

In many of our districts the little red store-box-shaped, dingy schoolhouses have become entirely unfit for use; and the districts have no bonding capacity to replace them. Many houses used for schools in our county, as well as in adjoining counties, are not fit for stables, and no progressive farmer would allow his thoroughbred stock to remain in one of them twenty-four hours during winter; and yet our boys and girls must either freeze in these old shacks or, as is often done, go back home through the cold.

At the present time we have four or five districts in our county that would build consolidated school buildings providing they could solve the financial problem. If the state would pay 100% of teachers' salaries in these poorer districts, this would free the money raised by local taxation for supplies, payment of indebtedness, and building purposes.

In some of our districts the directors have become so discouraged with conditions that I have had difficulty in persuading some of them to continue their schools and not to close them down and let the state make the best of the situation.

I hope you will not only support with your vote but also use your influence to have the Amendment to Section 1210, Paragraph 19, of the School Code enacted into law. This amendment to provide that districts having less than fifty thousand dollars of true valuation behind each teacher shall receive 100% of the teachers' salaries; and those having between fifty thousand and one hundred thousand dollars of true valuation behind each teacher shall receive 80% of the salaries.

In behalf of better schooling facilities for our country boys and girls, I most heartily solicit your interest in this matter.

Very respectfully yours,

W. P. TROSTLE,

County Superintendent,
Clearfield County Schools.

RESOLUTION.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

Mr. WALKER offered a resolution and asked unanimous consent for its adoption.

The resolution was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
February 27th, 1929.

Whereas, In certain school districts, due to the small resources available, there is evidence that the school system, as established by law, is unable to function successfully, and some school districts are in actual financial distress, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the sense of the General Assembly that it is the duty of the Commonwealth to provide financial assistance to those school districts which are so financially handicapped and distressed that the functioning of the educational system is seriously interfered with.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the adoption of the resolution at this time?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is something so important about this resolution both to the members of the House and to the Commonwealth that I believe the sponsor should withdraw his request for unanimous consent for its consideration at this time; otherwise I would feel it my duty to object to that unanimous consideration, not for the purpose of obstructing the movement of the resolution through the House, but rather to give someone in the House an opportunity to place the true facts concerning education, and the part that this Commonwealth plays in paying the bill for education, before the members of the House

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman press his request for unanimous consent?

Mr. WALKER. In view of the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, I will withdraw my request for unanimous consent.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Walker, on his question of personal privilege together with the communication read by him will be spread upon the Legislative Journal.

The resolution lies over for printing.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 9.

Mr. BART RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up Resolution No. 9.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

In the Senate, February 12, 1929.

Whereas The next edition of the Pennsylvania Manual formerly Smull's will be issued this year and

Whereas This book is largely distributed by the Members of the General Assembly therefore be it

Resolved That the Bureau of Publications of the Department of Property and Supplies be directed to insert in the Pennsylvania Manual such material relating to the Members of the General Assembly as is authorized by the printing committees of the Senate and House of Representatives and be it also Resolved (if the House concur) That the material to be inserted in the Pennsylvania Manual upon direction of the printing committees of the Senate and House of Representatives shall be transmitted to the Bureau Publications by the Librarian of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The resolution was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. SPEAKER, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have in our midst today the Honorable William T. Marshall of Allegheny who had the distinction of being elected speaker of this House by one majority and that made possible the sending to the United States Senate of the Honorable Matthew Stanley Quay, one of the greatest statesmen the world ever produced. I think the members will agree with me that we should ask Mr. Marshall to say a word or two to us.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, and the lady from Allegheny, Miss Grimes, to escort the Honorable William T. Marshall to the rostrum of the House.

It affords the Clair pleasure at this time to introduce to the members of the House, as well as our assembled guests, the Honorable William T. Marshall. Mr. Marshall was speaker of this House during the session of 1901. Mr. Marshall will now address you.

REMARKS BY HONORABLE WILLIAM T. MARSHALL.

HONORABLE WILLIAM T. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it affords me great pleasure to appear again on the floor of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania. Of course I have been here several times since that session of 1901. My worthy successor, Mr. Hess, didn't have the contest to get to be elected speaker that I had. I remember that in that session I was elected by a majority of only one vote, and that made possible the election of Senator Quay to the United States Senate to succeed himself. We had been in a deadlock during the session of 1899, and there was no election. The only familiar face of that session that I see around this morning is that of my friend. Mr. James N. Moore He was a member of the House at that time. I greatly appreciate the honor you have conferred upon me this morning.

BILL ON SECOND READING.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. GELNETT. Mr. Speaker, I notice on page 12 of today's calendar, bills on first reading, House Bill No. 195, file folio 1509, entitled:

An Act to establish as a State Highway a certain section of public road in Perry County and providing for its construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth

This is a bill of mine that establishes a State Highway in the County of Perry and which has been reported to the House. I understand that it is the concensus of opinion among the members of the House that no bill shall be sent through, or placed on the calendar, establishing a public road, that is not included in the omnibus bill. This bill would place twelve miles of township road on the State Highway System.

I, therefore, move, Mr. Speaker, that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Roads.

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. MEMOLO. Mr. Speaker, I call attention to House Bill No. 193, file folio 1507, entitled:

An Act to establish as a State highway a certain section of public road in Lackawanna County and providing for its construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth on page 12 of today's calendar, bills on first reading. This is an act establishing a highway in Lackawanna County and has been reported out of the Committee of Public Buildings.

I desire at this time to move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Roads.

Mr. KING. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. WM. BOYD SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Tuesday, March 5, 1929, at 12:00 o'clock noon.

Mr. MYERS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to, and at 10:53 o'clock A. M., the House adjourned until Tuesday, March 5, 1929, at 12:00 o'clock noon.

SENATE

TUESDAY, March 5th, 1929.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Arthur H. James) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Thou blessed God, we stand in reverence before Thee at this hour, and we pray that Thy guidance may be given unto us this day. We pray Thy blessing to rest upon our nation, and especially upon that eminent American citizen who yesterday was inaugurated President of our Republic.

We pray that the people may realize that through the provision of the Constitution he is elected to be the Chief Magistrate of all the people; and may they give him their loyal and undivided support, so that his tasks may be made the more easy. And may he realize that likewise his obligations extend to all the people, regardless of their political views; and may he render to them the best service that lies in his power to give.

We pray that Thou mayest protect his life, and that Thou mayest strengthen his hands to perform the tasks that lie before him; and may the high hopes that we have concerning the success of his administration be more than realized. We ask in Thy most holy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. LESLIE, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved

The SPEAKER (Aaron B. Hess) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Rev. George P. Donehoo offered the following prayer:

Almighty God; Thou art the author of government and the source of all law; we look to Thee this morning praying that Thy blessing may be upon this country which we all love. We thank Thee that yesterday, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the people of this great nation took part as never before in the history of this world, in such a celebration as that which was held in the capital of this nation. We thank Thee for that unity of spirit, for that true patriotism. We beseech Thee that Thy blessing may be upon the President of the United States as he commences his term of service. We pray that we as loyal citizens of a government of the people may realize that no government of the people can exist long in this world without law and without order enforced by the people themselves. Bless this House today; bless out State; bless those whom we love; those who are sick; those who are in sorrow. We ask it all in Thy name. Amen.

I	9000 and over	125.00

Section 707 Motor Busses and Motor Omnibusses with Pneumatic Tires—The fee for annual registration of each motor bus and motor omnibus with pneumatic tires shall be according to seating capacity and the following classes

Class	Seating Capacity	Fee
A	Five (5) Passengers or less	$40.00
B	More than five (5) passengers and nor more than twenty-six (26) passengers	$40.00 plus $4.00 for each seat over five seats
C	In excess of twenty-six (26) passengers	each seat over five seats to and including number twenty-six plus $10.00 for each seat over twenty-six

Section 708 Motor Busses and Motor Omnibusses with Solid Rubber Tires—The fee for annual registration of each motor bus and motor omnibus with solid rubber tires shall be according to seating capacity and the following classes

Class	Seating Capacity	Fee
A	Five (5) passengers or less	$55.00
B	More than five (5) passengers and not more than twenty-six (26) passengers	$55.00 plus $5.75 for each seat over five seats
C	In excess of twenty-six (26) passengers (except as otherwise provided in Class D)	$55.00 plus $5.75 for each seat over five seats to and including number twenty-six plus $14.00 for each seat over twenty-six
D	In excess of fifty-three (53) passengers when operated exclusively in cities	$565.00

Section 709 Metal Tires—The fee for annual registration of any motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer equipped with metal tires shall be double the regular fee of a similar vehicle equipped with solid rubber tires

Section 710 Reduction of Registration Fees in Certain Cases—The fee for registration of a motor vehicle trailer and semi-trailer when registration is issued on or after August first but prior to November first shall be one-half (½) of the fee for annual registration Provided That the fee for registration of any such vehicles when registration is issued on or after November first shall be one-fourth (¼) of the fee herein specified

Section 711 Manufacturers Jobbers and Dealers—The fee shall be five ($5) dollars for each registration issued to manufacturers jobbers or dealers in motorcycles and bicycles with motor attached registered in the "Dealer's" class

The fee shall be twenty-five ($25) dollars for each of the first two registrations and five ($5) dollars for each additional annual registration issued to manufacturers jobbers or dealers in motor vehicles trailers and semi-trailers registered in the "Dealer's" class

Section 712 Lighting Equipment—The fee for approval and registration of head lamps and auxiliary driving lamps shall be one hundred and fifty ($150.00) dollars for each type approved

The fee for approval and registration of rear lamps signal lamps and mechanical signal devices shall be fifty ($50.00) dollars for each type approved

The fee for approval and registration incident to the renewal of a certificate of approval for headlamps shall be fifty ($50.00) dollars

The fee for approval and registration incident to the renewal of a certificate of approval for auxiliary driving lamps rear lamps signal lamps and mechanical signal devices shall be twenty-five ($25.00) dollars

Section 713 Operator's Licenses Duplicate Registration or Operator's License Card—The fee for issuing an operator's license to a person unable to produce satisfactory proof of having held a Pennsylvania operator's license during any one of the three (3) years preceding application shall be three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) which fee shall entitle the applicant for such license to receive a learner's permit valid for sixty (60) days from date of issue and if the examination shall have been passed during the sixty (60) day period an operator's license for the current year

The fee for renewal of an operator's license shall be two ($2.00) dollars

The fee for a duplicate operator's license card or duplicate registration card shall be fifty ($.50) cents

Section 714 Replacement or Substitution of Registration Plates—The fee for replaced or substituted or duplicated motor vehicle trailer semi-trailer and manufacturer's jobbers or dealers' registration plate or plates shall be one ($1.00) dollar and except that the fee for replaced or substituted or duplicated motorcycle or bicycle with motor attached registration plates shall be fifty ($.50) cents

Section 715 Transferring Registration—The fee for transfer of registration shall be two ($2.00) dollars when motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer is of equal or less horse-power or classification than that originally registered or upon payment of a fee of two ($2.00) dollars and the difference between the fee originally paid and that due if the motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer be properly registerable in a higher classification

Section 716 Certificates of Title Duplicate Certificates of Title—The fee for each certificate of title shall be two ($2.00) dollars except in the case of a manufacturer jobber or dealer when the fee shall be fifty ($.50) cents The fee for a duplicate certificate of title shall be fifty (.50) cents

No fee shall be required when a certificate of title or assigned certificate of title is returned to the department for cancellation

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 810 Official Headlight Adjusting Stations—(a) The secretary is authorized to designate furnish instruction to and to supervise official stations for adjusting head lamps and auxiliary driving lamps to conform with the provisions of this act The establishment of official headlight adjusting stations shall mean the designation of any place which shall comply with the requirements for a test station as determined by the secretary When headlamps and auxiliary driving lamps have been adjusted in conformity with the instructions issued by the secretary a certificate of adjustment shall be issued to the owner or operator of the motor vehicle on a form prescribed by the secretary and showing date of issue registration number of the motor vehicle owner's name name of vehicle and official designation of the adjusting station

(b) The secretary shall approve methods of headlamp and auxiliary driving lamp tests Approval of the use of head lamp testing equipment may be given by the secretary When necessary the United States Bureau of Standards or such other recognized testing agency may be called upon to assist the secretary in determining whether the headlamp testing equipment shall be approved for the purposes set forth in this act

(c) If the secretary finds that the business of any official adjusting station is being poorly or badly conducted he may revoke the designation of such station

(d) It shall be unlawful for any person to display or cause or permitted to be displayed any sign mark or advertisement as an official Headlight Adjusting Station unless certificate of appointment has been issued by the secretary and is then in effect or to furnish a certificate of Headlight Adjustment when not authorized to do so

(e) It shall be unlawful for the owner or any employe of an Official Headlight Adjusting Station to violate rules adopted by the secretary governing the correction adjustment or repair and inspection of lights

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of subsections (d) or (e) of this sectoin shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five ($25) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days

Section 811 Brakes—(a) Every motor vehicle titled or registered in this Commonwealth and when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of and to stop and to hold such vehicle including two (2) separate means of applying the brakes each of which means shall be effective to apply the brakes to at least two (2) wheels If these two (2) separate means of applying the brakes are connected in any way they shall be so constructed that failure of any one (1) part of the operating mechanism shall not leave the motor vehicle without brakes on at least two (2) wheels

(b) Every motorcycle and bicycle with motor attached titled or registered in this Commonwealth and when operated upon a highway shall be provided with at least cne (1) brake which may be operated by hand or foot

(c) All such brakes shall be maintained in good working order and shall conform to regulations further provided in this act

(d) On and after July first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one all new motor vehicles titled or registered in this Commonwealth shall be equipped with brakes as respectively required in this act for different classes of motor vehicles capable of conforming to braking requirements further provided in this act

(d) On a dry hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose materail the service brake shall be capable of stopping the motor vehicle from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of fifty (50) feet or at a rate which corresponds to such performance.

(f) On a dry hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material the emergency brake shall be capable of stopping the motor vehicle from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of seventy-five (75) feet or at a rate which corresponds to such performance

(g) Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with semi-trailers attached exceeding seven thousand (7000) pounds gross weight shall be capable of stopping on a dry hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material within the following distances or at rates corresponding in each instance to the several performance specified

Within fifty (50) feet from twenty (20) miles per hour upon simultaneous application of the service and emergency brakes

Within seventy-five (75) feet from twenty (20) miles per hour upon application of the service brake alone

Within seventy-five (75) feet from twenty (20) miles per hour upon application of the emergency brake alone

(h) When any motor vehicle with trailers attached is operated in combination the application of brakes shall be construed to mean the application of all brakes on the motor vehicle and trailers which are normally capable of being operated simultaneously by the operator

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provision of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 812 Brake Enforcement—(a) The brakes on a motor vehicle will be presumed to be unsafe and to require immediate attention if on a dry approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material the service brake will not be capable of stopping the motor vehicle from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of fifty (50) feet and the emergency brake under the same conditions within a distance of seventy-five (75) feet or at a rate which corresponds to such performance except that the brakes on commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with semi-trailers attached exceeding seven thousand (7000) pounds gross weight will be presumed to be unsafe and to require immediate attention if on a dry hard approximately level stretch of highway free from loose material both brakes applied simultaneously will not be capable of stopping such vehicles from a speed of twenty (20) miles per hour within a distance of fifty (50) feet and the service and emergency brakes applied separately under the same conditions within a distance of seventy-nve (75) feet or at a rate which corresponds to such performance Or when on a descending grade not exceeding ten (10) per centum motor vehicle will drift with either service or emergency brake applied singly.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motor vehicle without required number of brakes in good working condition The owner or operator of any motor vehicle who is notified by a peace officer that such brake or brakes are improperly adjusted or are unsafe or unfit or in need of correction adjustment or repairs shall be allowed forty-eight (48) hours within which to correct adjust or repair such brakes to conform with the requirements of this act To submit a certificate to the peace officer giving the notification issued or executed by an official brake adjusting station showing that within forty-eight (48) hours after such notification the brakes have been corrected adjusted or repaired to conform with the requirements of this act shall relieve the owner or operator from arrest Unless such certificate is received by the peace officer within five (5) days from the date of notification showing that the brakes have been corrected adjusted or repaired as required in this act information for arrest shall be made Provided that when service and emergency brakes applied together will not stop a motor vehicle within distances defined in this act or hold a motor vehicle on a descending grade not exceeding ten (10) per centum the owner or operator may be required to make temporary correction adjustment or repairs before being permitted to proceed with the motor vehicle

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 813—Official Brake Adjusting Statons—(a) The secretary is authorized to designate furnish instructions to and to supervise Official Stations for correction adjustment repairs and inspection of motor vehicle brakes The establishment of Official Brake Adjusting Stations shall mean the designation of any place which shall comply with the requirements for a test station as determined by the secretary When brakes have been corrected adjusted or repaired and inspected and found to conform with the instructions issued by the secretary only then shall a certificate of adjustment be issued to the owner or operator of the motor vehicle on a form prescribed by the secretary showing date of issue registration number of the vehicle owner's name and address name of vehicle and offical designation of the adjusting station

(b) If the secretary finds that the business of any Official Brake Adjusting Station is being poorly or badly conducted he may revoke the designation of such station

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person to display or cause or permit to be displayed any sign mark or advertisement as an Official Brake Adjusting Station unless Certificate of Appointment has been issued by the secretary and is then in effect or to furnish certificate of brake adjustment when not authorized to do so

(d) The secretary shall approve methods of Brake Tests Approval of the use of mechanical brake testing equipment may be given by the secretary When necessary the United States Bureau of Standards or such other recognized testing agency may be called upon to assist the secretary in determining whether the mechanical brake testing equipment shall be approved for the purposes set forth in this act

(e) It shall be unlawful for the owner or any employe of an official Brake Adjusting Station to violate rules adopted by the secretary governing the correction adjustment or repair of inspection of brakes

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of sub-sections (c) or (e) of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five ($25) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days

Section 814 Horns and Warning Devices—(a) Every motor vehicle when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with a horn or other warning device in good working order capable of emitting sound audible under normal conditions from a distance of not less than two hundred (200) feet and it shall be unlawful except as otherwise provided in this act for any vehicle to be equipped with or for any person to use upon a vehicle any siren bell compression or sparkplug whistle or for any person at any time to use a horn or other warning devices otherwise than as a reasonable warning or to make any unnecessary or unreasonably loud or harsh sound by means of a horn or other warning device

(b) Every police and fire department and fire patrol vehicle and every ambulance may be equipped with a bell siren compression or sparkplug whistle of a type approved by the secretary

Section 815 Mirrors—No person shall operate a motor vehicle on a highway which motor vehicle is so constructed or loaded as to prevent the operator from obtaining a view of the highway to the rear by looking backward from the operator's position unless such vehicle is equipped with a mirror so located as to reflect to the operator a view of the highway for a distance of at least two hundred (200) feet to the rear of such vehicle Provided That persons who have less than two (2) per centum of normal hearing to whom an operator's license has been issued shall be required to have any motor vehicle which they may operate equipped with a mirror attached and adjusted to enable them to see traffic approaching from the rear

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 816 Windshields Must Be Unobstructed and Equipped with Wipers—(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to operate any motor vehicle upon a highway with any sign poster or other non-transparent material upon the front windshield side wings side or rear windows of such motor vehicle other than a certificate or other paper required by law or so directed by the secretary to be displayed Provided however that signal lamps of a type approved by the secretary shall not be considered a violation of this section

(b) Every permanent windshield on a motor vehicle shall be equipped with a device for cleaning rain snow or other moisture from the windshield which device shall be so constructed as to be controlled or operated by the operator of the vehicle

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of five ($5) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than three (3) days

Section 817 Obscene or Vulgar Signs or Markings—It shall be unlawful for any vehicle to be operated upon any highway having on any part of such vehicle or its legal attachments thereto any plates cards tags letterings or markings of an obscene or vulgar nature

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days.

Section 818 Flag or Light at End of Load—Whenever the load on any vehicle shall extend more than four (4) feet beyond the rear of the chasis bed or body therof there shall be displayed at the end of such load in such position as to be clearly visible at all times from the rear a red flag not less than twelve (12) inches both in length and width except that between one (1) hour after sunset and one (1) hour before sunrise there shall be displayed at the end of any such load a red light plainly visible under normal atmospheric conditions at least two hundred (200) feet from the rear

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 819 Prevention of Noise—(a) No person shall operate a motor vehicle on a highway unless such motor vehicle is equipped with a muffler in good working order and in constant operation to prevent excessive or unusual noise

(b) It shall be unlawful to use a muffler cut-out on any motor vehicle upon a highway

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 820 Chains and Tires—(a) Every solid rubber tire on a vehicle moved on any highway shall have rubber on its entire traction surface at least one (1) inch thick above the edge of the flange of the entire periphery

(b) No tire on a vehicle moved on a highway shall have on its periphery any block stud flange cleat or spike or any other protuberances of any material other than rubber which projects beyond the tread of the traction surface of the tire except that it shall be permissible to use tire chains consisting of not less than five (5) cross chains or which do not project more than one (1) inch upon the outside surface of the periphery of the wheel of any vehicle when required for safety because of snow ice or other conditions tending to cause a vehicle to slide or skid

(c) The width of rubber tires for the purpose of this act shall be ascertained by measuring the width of tire at the base of channel or between the flanges of the metal rim except pneumatic tires the width of which shall be determined by measuring the greatest width of tire casing The width of metal tires shall be determined by measuring the width of contact of tire with the road surface

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of subsection (a) or (b) of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 903 Weight of Vehicles and Loads—(a) Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors other than those electrically operated shall not be used or operated on any highway with gross weight exceeding those specified for the several classes and weights of chassis as follows

Class	Chassis Weight in Pounds	Gross Weight in Pounds
R	Less than 2000	5000
S	2000 and over but less than 3000	7000
T	3000 and over but less than 4000	11000

Class	Chasis Weight in Pounds	Gross Weight in Pounds
U	4000 and over but less than 5000	13000
V	5000 and over but less than 6000	18000
W	6000 and over but less than 7500	22000
Y	7500 and over but less than 9000	25000
Z	9000 and over	26000

(b) Electrically operated commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors shall not be used or operated on any highway with gross weight exceeding those specified for the several classes as follows

Class	Gross Weight in Pounds
R	5000
S	7000
T	11000
U	15000
V	18000
W	22000
Y	25000
Z	26000

(c) Trailers shall not be used or operated on any highway with gross weight exceeding those specified for the several classes and weights of chassis as follows

Class	Chassis Weight in Pounds	Gross Weight in Pounds
A	Less than 500	1500
B	500 and over but less than 2000	5000
C	2000 and over but less than 3000	7000
D	3000 and over but less than 4000	11000
E	4000 and over but less than 5000	13000
F	5000 and over but less than 6000	18000
G	6000 and over but less than 7500	22000
H	7500 and over but less than 9000	25000
I	9000 and over	26000

(d) Semi-trailers shall not be used or operated on any highway with gross weight exceeding those specified for the several classes and weights of chassis as follows

Class	Chassis Weight in Pounds	Gross Weight in Pounds
A	Less than 500	1000
B	500 and over but less than 2000	4000
C	2000 and over but less than 3000	6000
D	3000 and over but less than 4000	8000
E	4000 and over but less than 5000	10000
F	5000 and over but less than 6000	12000
G	6000 and over but less than 7500	15000
H	7500 and over but less than 9000	18000
I	9000 and over	19500

(e) No vehicle except fire department equipment shall be operated upon any highway with a gross weight in excess of twenty-six thousand (26,000) pounds or in excess of nineteen thousand five hundred (19,500) pounds on any axle or in excess of eight hundred (800) pounds on any one wheel for each nominal inch of width of tire on such wheel

(f) No truck tractor and semi-trailer combined except fire department equipment shall be operated upon any highway with a gross weight in excess of thirty-nine thousand (39,000) pounds or in excess of nineteen thousand five hundred (19,500) pounds on any axle or in excess of eight hundred (800) pounds on any one wheel for each nominal inch of width of tire on such wheel axle or axles of semi-trailer shall not be less than ninety-six (96) inches from the axle of the truck tractor

(g) Maximum gross weights provided in this section are permissible only under conditions where no other restrictions are provided in this act or in any other laws regulating the gross maximum weight of vehicles

Section 904 Officers May Weigh Vehicles and Require Removal of Excess Load—Any peace officer who shall be in uniform and shall exhibit his badge or other sign of authority having reason to believe that the weight of a vehicle and load is unlawful is authorized to weigh the same either by means of portable or stationary scales or may require that such vehicle be driven to the nearest stationary scales in the event such scales are within a distance of two (2) miles The peace officer may then require the operator to unload immediately such portion of the load as may be necessary to decrease the gross weight of such vehicle to the maximum gross weight specified in this act except as herein provided for special permits And further provided That no arrests shall be made nor shall removal of any portion of the load be required in cases where the maximum gross weights provided in this act are not exceeded by more than ten (10) per centum thereof

Penalty—Any person refusing to unload excess weight when so ordered shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 905 Permits for Excessive Size and Weight—(a) The Secretary of Highways of this Commonwealth and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may in their discretion upon application in writing accompanied by the fee provided in this act and good cause being shown therefor issue a special permit in writing authorizing the applicant to operate or move a vehicle of a size and weight exceeding the maximum specified in this act upon any highway under the jurisdiction of and for the maintenance of which the authorities granting the permit are responsible Every such permit shall be issued for a single trip and shall designate the route to be traversed and contain any other restrictions or conditions deemed necessary by the authority granting such permit Every such permit shall be carried in the vehicle to which it refers and shall be open to inspection by any peace officer or employe of the Department of Highways of this Commonwealth or person having collision with vehicle

(b) In the event of a catastrophe or accident affecting the public safety or convenience it shall be lawful to operate or move a vehicle of a size or weight in excess of that permitted by this act if a report thereof is immedaitely made in writing to the Secretary of Highways of this Commonwealth or local authorities In such cases a permit shall issue subsequent to the movement

Penalty—Any person operating or moving a vehicle or load of a size or weight exceeding the maximum specified in this act without first having obtained a permit or permits so to do shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof in a court of Quarter Sessions be sentenced to pay a fine not in excess of one thousand ($1000) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than one (1) year

(a) Any person who drives any vehicle upon a highway carelessly and wilfully or wantonly disregarding the rights or safety of others or in a manner so as to endanger any person or property

(b) If investigation into an accident arising from the use and operation of a motor vehicle discloses that the accident occurred due to the front seat of the motor vehicle having been occupied by more than three (3) persons Provided that this provision shall not apply to a motor vehicle the front seat of which has been constructed to accommodate more than three (3) persons and further provided that there is sixteen (16) inches of seating capacity for each passenger or occupant so accommodated on said front seat

(c) Any person who shall participate in any physical endurance test or any race or speed contest with a motor vehicle on any highway

Penalty—Any person charged with reckless driving shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days

Section 1002—Restrictions as to Speed—(a) Any person driving a vehicle on a highway shall drive the same at a careful and prudent speed not greater than nor less than is reasonable and proper having due regard to the traffic surface and width of the highway and of any other restrictions or conditions then and there existing and no person shall drive any vehicle upon a highway at such a speed as to endanger the life limb or property of any person nor at a speed greater than will permit him to bring the vehicle to a stop within the assured clear distance ahead

(b) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (a) of this section speeds in excess of the maximum limits hereinafter provided shall be unlawful

1 Ten (10) miles an hour speed limit

All vehicles when passing any interurban or street car taking on or discharging passengers at an intersection where a safety zone has been established or where traffic is controlled by a peace officer or a traffic signal

2 Fifteen (15) miles an hour speed limit

All vehicles except those restricted by this act to lower maximum speeds when passing a school building during school recess or while children are going to or leaving school during opening or closing hours

3 Twenty (20) miles an hour speed limit

All vehicles except those restricted by this act to lower maximum speeds within business or residence districts where signs erected by the proper authorities on the right hand side of the highway facing the traffic to be controlled are displayed bearing the words "TWENTY MILE SPEED LIMIT" in letters not less than four (4) inches in height This limit shall be observed for a distance beyond said sign for not more than one-eighth (⅛) of a mile An additional sign shall be placed at intervals not greater than one-eighth of a mile and any extension of such limited zone shall be marked by additional signs in like manner At the end of such limited zone there shall be a sign similarly placed as to traffic bearing the words "END OF TWENTY MILE SPEED LIMIT" in letters not less than four (4) inches in height

All vehicles except those restricted by this act to lower maximum speeds when approaching within two hundred (200) feet of a grade crossing where sign erected by the proper authorities is displayed bearing the words "TWENTY MILE SPEED LIMIT" in letters not less than four (4) inches in height

All vehicles except those restricted by this act to lower maximum speeds when approaching within fifty (50) feet and in traversing an intersection of highways within a business or residence district when the driver's view is obstructed except on highways controlled at intersections by peace officer or traffic signal A driver's view shall be deemed to be obstructed if during the last fifty (50) feet of his approach to such intersection he does not have a clear and uninterrupted view of such intersection and of the traffic upon all of the highways entering such intersection for a distance of two hundred (200) feet from such intersection

(c) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (a) and (b) of this section it shall be unlawful for the following kinds types and classes of vehicles to exceed the maximum speed limits hereinafter provided

1 Ten (10) miles an hour speed limit

Tractors

Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with solid rubber tires—Class Z

2 Twelve (12) miles an hour speed limits

Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with solid rubber tires—Class Y

3 Fifteen (15) miles an hour speed limit

Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with solid rubber tires—Class V and W

4 Eighteen (18) miles an hour speed limit

Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with solid rubber tires Class U

5 Twenty (20) miles an hour speed limit

Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with solid rubber tires Class S and T

6 Twenty-four (24) miles an hour speed limit

Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with solid rubber tires—Class R

7 Thirty (30) miles an hour speed limit

Motor busses and omnibuses with solid rubber tires—Class B C and D

Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with pneumatic tires—Class Y and Z

8 Thirty-five (35) miles an hour speed limit

Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with pneumatic tires—Class V and W

9 Forty (40) miles an hour speed limit

Motor busses and omnibuses with pneumatic tires—Class B C and D

Commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors with pneumatic tires—Class R S T and U

(d) When the rate of speed of any vehicle is timed on a measured stretch of any highway within a business or residence district where "TWENTY MILE SPEED LIMIT" signs are erected as provided in this section for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the operator of such vehicle is violating a speed provision of this act such time shall be taken by not less than two (2) peace officers one of whom shall have been stationed at each end of such measured stretch and no conviction shall be had upon the unsupported evidence of one (1) peace officer except as hereinafter provided and no such measured stretch shall be less than one-eighth (⅛) of a mile in length Under all other conditions the rate of speed may be timed by a peace officer using a motor vehicle equipped with a speedometer tested for accuracy within a period of thirty (30) days of the alleged violation

(e) In every information charging violation of this section reference shall be made to this section and sub-section alleged to have been violated specifying the speed at which the defndant is alleged to have driven

(f) The speed limitations set forth in this section shall not apply to vehicles when operated with due regard for safety under the directions of the police in the chase or apprehension of violators of the law or of persons charged with or sus pected of any violation nor to fire department or fire patrol vehicles when traveling in response to a fire alarm nor to ambulances when traveling in emergencies The exemption shall not however protect the driver of any such vehicle from the consequences of a reckless disregard of the safety of others

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 1003—Railroad Warning Signals Must Be Obeyed—Whenever any person driving a vehicle approaches an interurban or steam railway grade crossing and a clearly visible and positive signal gives warning of the immediate approach of a railway train or car it shall be unlawful for the driver of the vehicle to fail to bring the vehicle to a complete stop before traversing such grade crossing

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 1004—Drive on Right Side of Highway—Upon all highways of sufficient width except upon one way streets the driver of a vehicle shall drive the same upon the right half of the highway and shall drive a slow moving vehicle as closely as possible to the right-hand edge or curb of such highway unless it is impracticable to travel on such side of the highway and except when overtaking and passing another vehicle subject to the limitations applicable in overtaking and passing set forth in this act

Penalty—Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than fire (5) days

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 269.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, February 28, 1929.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith without my approval House Bill No. 269, file folio 137, entitled, "An act validating certain proceedings and elections of counties cities boroughs townships school districts and other municipalities or incorporated districts had and held pursuant to the provisions of an act approved the twentieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four entitled 'An act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities to provide for the redemption of the same and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof' and the amendments and supplements thereto and validating bonds issued or authorized to be issued in pursuance of such proceedings and elections."

This bill would validate certain technical defects in bond issues of counties, municipalities and school districts.

At each session of the Legislature it has become customary to enact legislation curing technical defects of this sort, but in my opinion legislation of this character should be so drawn as to cover every defect which may have occurred in the issuance of municipal bonds during the recess of the Legislature.

The present bill does not cover the field but applies only to a limited number of such defects. I understand that another bill is in course of passage which will include practically every defect which could have occurred. When this bill comes to me I shall be glad to give it my approval, but two bills on this subject are unnecessary.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill together with the veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. HAWS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 153.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, February 28, 1928.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 153, file folio 129, entitled, "An Act providing for the appointment of assistant district attorneys in counties of the second class fixing their salaries payable by the county and repealing existing laws."

JOHN S. FISHER.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

An Act to amend sections two hundred and eighteen and six hundred twenty-five of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, page seven hundred eighty-nine), entitled "An act relating to insurance; establishing an insurance department and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating to the licensing, qualification, regulation, examination, suspension, and dissolution of insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and certain societies and orders, the examination and regulation of fire insurance rating bureaus, and the licensing and regulation of insurance agents and brokers; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws."

Mr. CONNER, from the Committee on Ways and Means, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 917, entitled:

An Act to further amend section two of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred ninety-five, (Pamphlet Laws four hundred eight), as amended by the act approved the fifteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred nineteen, (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred sixty-four), entitled "An act to amend the second section, as amended of, and to supplement, an act, entitled 'A supplement to the twenty-fourth section of an act, entitled "An act to provide revenue by taxation approved the seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine," approved the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, amending the twenty-fourth section, by providing for the payment by the State Treasurer of one-half of the two per centum tax on premiums paid by foreign fire insurance companies to the treasurers of the several cities and boroughs within this Commonwealth,' approved the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five; amending the same to provide for the payment of the net proceeds of the entire two per centum tax for the purpose indicated in the original act and supplement, including townships among the distributees."

Mr. WIKE, from the Committee on Ways and Means, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 918, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of an act, approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred and ninety-eight), entitled "An act imposing a tax for State purposes on marine insurance underwriting profits, and providing for the collection of such tax."

Mr. WRIGHT, from the Committee on Ways and Means, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 919, entitled:

An Act to amend sections three hundred two as amended, three hundred three, three hundred four, three hundred five, three hundred six, three hundred seven, three hundred eight, three hundred nine, three hundred ten, and twelve hundred one as amended, of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, (Pamphlet Laws three hundred fifty-nine) entitled, "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto" as amended.

Mr. STARK, from the Committee on Ways and Means, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 920, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two hundred twenty as amended, two hundred twenty-one, two hundred twenty-two, two hundred twenty-three, two hundred twenty-four, two hundred twenty-five as amended, and two hundred eighty-five as amended, of the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth."

Mr. NOTHNAGLE, from the Committee on Ways and Means, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 1065, entitled:

An Act to repeal section seventeen and to amend sections three, five, eleven and fourteen, as amended, and section fifteen of the act approved the eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred and twenty-one), entitled "An act relating to dogs, and the protection of live stock and poultry from damage by dogs; providing for the licensing of dogs by the Secretary of Agriculture; providing for the enumeration of dogs by assessors; regulating the keeping of dogs, and authorizing their destruction in certain cases; providing for the protection of licensed dogs, and for dogs temporarily imported for trial, show, and breeding purposes; prescribing certain privileges for hunting dogs, and dogs owned or used by the Board of Game Commissioners; providing for the assessment of damages done to live stock and poultry by dogs, and for the illegal killing of licensed dogs, and the payment of such damages by the Commonwealth; imposing powers and duties on certain State, county, city, borough, town and township officers and employes; directing the payment of all moneys collected into the State Treasury; and making an appropriation thereof; and providing penalties," substituting the Department of Revenue for the Department of Agriculture as the agency having supervision over the issuance of dog and kennel licenses.

BILL ON FIRST READING.

Mr. SPANGLER asked and obtained unanimous consent to have House Bill No. 1393 (Senate Bill No. 535) read the first time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1393 (Senate Bill No. 535), entitled:

An Act validating certain proceedings and elections of municipalities had and held pursuant to the provisions of an act approved the twentieth day of April one thousand eight hundred seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws sixty-five) entitled "An act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities to provide for the redemption of the same and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof" and the amendments and supplements thereto and validating bonds issued or authorized to be issued in pursuance of such proceedings and elections.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,

Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to say to the chairmen of the various committees that some bills have been referred to your committee because the Chair felt that the general provisions of the bill were such that your committee was the proper one to give consideration to the general provisions of the bill. Some of these bills, if passed upon favorably by your committee, require an appropriation; some of them will result in the raising of revenue. In instances such as that, after your committee has passed upon the general provisions of the bill, the Chair suggests that such bills be returned to the floor of the House with the request that, if they carry an appropriation, they be recommitted to the Appropriations Committee, and if they carry provisions that will produce revenue they be recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 52, file folio 651, entitled:

An Act supplementing existing laws relating to the returns of aldermen, justices of the peace and committing magistrates of transcripts of their dockets, et cetera.

on page 20 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed, be extended five days.

Mr. DITTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILLS.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 788, file folio 1313, entitled:

An Act to amend part of section one of an act approved the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and one (P. L. 663), entitled "An act to regulate and establish the fees to be charged by Sheriffs in this Commonwealth, and to provide for the taxation and collection of the same," by increasing the fees for serving certain writs and summonses.

House Bill No. 800, file folio 749, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 91), entitled, "An act, relating to municipal indebtedness; imposing certain powers and duties upon the Department of Internal Affairs, and the officers of counties, cities of the third class, boroughs, towns, townships, school districts of the second, third and fourth classes and poor districts, in connection with proceedings to incur and increase indebtedness; and the establishing and maintaining of sinking funds; fixing the maximum maturity of refunding bonds; and providing penalties."

on page 20 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed, and House Bill No. 197, file folio 1331, entitled:

An Act providing for the certification of inspected seed potatoes agricultural and vegetable seeds prohibiting the use of the words "certified" "inspected" "registered" or similar terms in connection with the sale of seed potatoes and agricultural and vegetable seeds unless inspected and certified as provided in this act providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Agriculture prescribing penalties and conferring jurisdiction in certain cases upon the courts of Common Pleas on page 20 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed, be extended five days.

Mr. JAMES G. CLARK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Mr. LINTON asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order House Bill No. 239, on page 6 of today's calendar, bills on second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 239, as follows:

An Act fixing the time when statutory law hereafter enacted shall become effective

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That all laws hereafter enacted finally by the General Assembly except laws making appropriations shall be in full force and effect only from and after the first day of September next following their final enactment unless a different date is specified in the act itself Appropriation laws or laws having appropriation items shall be in full force and effect from and after the first day of June next following their final enactment unless a different date is specified in the act itself or unless any such appropriation law or law having an appropriation item is enacted finally after the first day of June in any year in which case it shall be in full force and effect immediately upon final enactment

The words "final enactment" or "enacted finally" as used in this act shall be construed to mean the time when the procedure required by the Constitution for the enactment of a bill into a law has been complied with

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I rise on a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have with us at this time a former member of the Legislature, my former colleague from Tioga County, who served with distinction and credit to himself in the sessions of 1909, 1911 and 1913, the Honorable Frank H. Rockwell. I would be pleased if you would invite him to address the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will appoint the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, and the gentleman from Susquehanna, Mr. Brown, to escort Mr. Rockwell to the rostrum.

Ladies and gentlemen, and guests, it affords the Chair pleasure to introduce to you at this time the Honorable Frank H. Rockwell, who was a member representing the County of Tioga in the sessions of 1909, 1911 and 1913. It was the pleasure of the Chair to serve with Mr. Rockwell during the sessions of 1911 and 1913, and it is a real pleasure to introduce him to you at this time. You will now hear Mr. Rockwell.

REMARKS BY HON. FRANK H. ROCKWELL.

The HONORABLE FRANK H. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House of Representatives of the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, this is indeed a surprise to me to be called up here at this time.

As has been said to you, I was a member of this House during the sessions of 1909, 1911 and 1913, and those of you who have studied the Pamphlet Laws of our Commonwealth for those years I believe will agree with me that those were very important sessions.

I recall the last session, the session of 1913, that was presided over by the Honorable George E. Alter, of Pittsburgh, later a candidate for Governor, but who didn't get quite votes enough, which I was always very sorry for.

I am glad to look into your faces, although I see very few faces that I recall of those who were members of this body when I was here.

From what I have observed in the newspapers, I believe you are doing good work and I hope you will continue to do so, and that every law that is put upon our statute books may be one of merit and one of benefit to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I thank you very much for this opportunity.

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 794.

An Act making an appropriation to the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 1, line 4, by striking out after the word "of" the word "two," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "five;" also by striking out after the word "hundred" the words, "and eighty-five."

At the beginning of line five strike out the figures in brackets "($288,000)," and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "($500,000)."

In line 7, by striking out, after the word "Penitentiary," the words "Out of surplus moneys held by the treasurer of said board of trustees," and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "for bills incurred and to be incurred."

On page 2, by striking out lines 9 to 12, inclusive, as follows: "All expenditures heretofore made by the said Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary out of any surplus moneys in the hands of its treasurer for the purposes enumerated in this act are hereby ratified confirmed and made valid."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. HAWS. Mr. Speaker, I have in my hand a bill that is being reported from the Committee on Elections, which is of great importance to all the women voters in counties of the first class. It eliminates the necessity of stating their age at the time of registration. I ask unanimous consent at this time to report the bill from committee as committed.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to report a bill at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and unanimous consent is granted.

Mr. HAWS, from the Committee on Elections, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1388 (Senate Bill No. 217), entitled:

An Act to amend the last two paragraphs of section thirteen of the act approved the tenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, (P. L. 857), entitled "An act to provide for the personal registration of electors as a condition of their right to vote at elections, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries, in cities of the first class of this Commonwealth, by removing from office all existing registration commissioners and their appointees in said cities, and authorizing the Governor to appoint registration commissions therein; defining the jurisdiction of said commissions, and the powers and duties of the commissioners constituting same, and of their appointees, including registrars, inspectors of registration, clerks, and counsel; fixing their qualifications, terms of office, and compensation; granting them certain immunity from arrest on registration days; and empowering such inspectors to arrest without warrant certain persons committing certain offences in violation of this act in their presence, as well as to enter and inspect buildings given as residences of electors to interrogate the inmates thereof, to copy or demand a list of the lodgers therein, and to supervise the conduct of registrars; regulating the registration of electors at polling places by registrars, and at the offices of commissions by commissioners, and the right of parties or bodies of electors to have watchers thereat, and the preparation and use of street lists and other records of those registered; allowing the names of persons not entitled to vote to be struck from the registers in certain cases; permitting all records regarding registration to be inspected and copies by any elector under certain conditions; directing how the registers shall be used at elections and primaries; compelling the attendance of witnesses and payment of witness fee; and providing penalties for refusal to obey subpoenas; directing receivers of taxes to appoint chief clerks of commissions as deputies to collect poll taxes and to give receipts therefor; authorizing such clerks to administer oaths, sign subpoenas and vouchers; and to collect and disburse witness fees; prescribing a method for challenging persons applying for registration, and the procedure for the correction of registers, and for appealing from actions of registrars to said commissions; and allowing for appeals from the decisions of the commissions in certain cases to courts of common pleas; imposing certain duties upon election officers and upon the councils, treasurers, controllers, receivers of taxes, police officers, and other officials of said cities and upon the courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, commissioners, peace officers, and other officials of the judicial districts and counties in which said cities are situated or with which they are coextensive; legalizing certain acts required hereby if done on any Sunday or legal holiday; requiring said cities to provide for the maintenance of said commissions, and the compensation of their appointees, and the payment of all expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, and to transfer the unexpended balances of all appropriations heretofore made for the personal registration of electors of said cities during the year one thousand nine hundred and nineteen to and for the use of the said commissions; punishing and fixing penalties for violations hereof; and repealing all legislation inconsistent herewith."

REPORT OF COMMISSION TO STUDY MUNICIPAL CONSOLIDATION IN COUNTIES OF THE SECOND CLASS.

The SPEAKER laid before the House the report of the Commission to Study Municipal Consolidation in Counties of the Second Class.

(For Report, see Appendix to Legislative Journal.)

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would suggest, if it is agreeable to the membership of the House, that we adjourn until 11.00 o'clock tomorrow, which will give an opportunity for committee meetings prior to the convening of the House, and that we then take a recess until 3.00 or 3.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, which will give another very splendid opportunity for committee work.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until tomorrow morning at 11.00 o'clock.

Mr. WILLIAM BOUD SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to, and at 5.58 o'clock P. M., the House adjourned until tomorrow morning at 11.00 o'clock.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1929 — 128th of the General Assembly

Vol. 11 — HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1929 — No. 20

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, March 6, 1929.

The Senate met at 10.30 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Horace W. Schantz) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Thou Eternal God, Thou art the foundation of our being; we owe our origin to Thyself. Thou didst dignify our humanity by creating us in Thine own image and likeness. All our conceptions of virtue come to us from contemplation of Thine own Divine Being; and as we tend to become Godlike we realize that we are approaching the end and purpose of our being.

Thy will is the law of this universe. We pray we may conform our lives to its holy requirements. May all civil government be grounded in Thy holy will. May all our social relationships be governed by Thy sacred precepts. Then indeed shall Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven, for in all these things have we a measure of Thy glory.

We pray for the forgiveness of all our sins, and that Thou mayest show unto us Thy salvation; and Thy name shall have all the praise. We ask in Thy Holy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. LAMB, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were laid upon the table.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. NORTON, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 462, entitled:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye," the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 391, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, (Pamphlet Laws two hundred sixty-eight), entitled "An act to increase the power of courts in proceedings for desertion and non-support of wives children or aged parents and in proceedings for failure to comply with orders of court in fornication and bastardy proceedings or other proceedings for the support of illegitimate children directing that imprisonment in such cases be at hard labor in such institution as the court shall name providing for the payment by such institution or in certain cases by the county from which the defendant was committed of the sum of sixty-five cents per day to be paid to the person designated by the order of the court providing for the issuance of attachments and for the disbursements of moneys collected on forfeiture of bonds bail-bonds or recognizances and providing for the payment by the county of the expenses incident to carrying out this act" authorizing the courts to make additional orders on defendants for the support of the wife, child or children of defendants or to imprison defendants

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, (Pamphlet Laws two hundred sixty-eight), entitled "An act to increase the powers of courts in proceedings for desertion and non-support of wives children or aged parents and in proceedings for failure to comply with orders of court in fornication and bastardy proceedings or other proceedings for the support of illegitimate children directing that imprisonment in such cases be at hard labor in such institution as the court shall name providing for the payment by such institution or in certain cases by the county from which the defendant was committed of the sum of sixty-five cents per day to be paid to the person designated by the order of the court providing for the issuance of attachments and for the disbursements of moneys collected on forfeiture of bonds bail-bonds or recognizances and providing for the payment by the county of the expenses incident to carrying out this act" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever in any proceedings brought against any man wherein it is charged that he has without reasonable cause separated himself from his wife or children or from both or has neglected to maintain his wife or children or in any proceedings where any father of an illegitimate child has neglected to comply with the order of court against him in fornication and bastardy proceedings or in any other proceedings for the support of such child for the payment to the mother of the expenses incurred at the birth of the child [or in any proceedings where any child of full age has neglected or shall neglect to maintain his or her parents not able to work or of sufficient ability to maintain themselves]—the court having jurisdiction shall commit the defendant to imprisonment for want of a bond with security [or otherwise the court may order the defendant to be imprisoned] or if the court having jurisdiction shall find that the defendant although he has no property and is not able to provide a bond with security but has sufficient earning power to support his parent wife child or children and refuses so to do the said court may order the defendant to be imprisoned until further order of the court at hard labor under existing law or laws that may hereafter be passed in such penal or reformatory institution in this Commonwealth as the court shall direct and thereafter to parole such defendant on his own recognizance in the custody of a probation officer subject to such conditions as the court may in its discretion impose and to re-commit such defendant upon violation of the conditions of such parole or the court may discharge a defendent upon his own recognizance in the custody of a desertion probation officer or other person subject to such conditions as the court may in its discretion impose and thereafter commit such defendant to jail or workhouse until further order of the court at hard labor on cause shown that said defendant has violated his parole and to reparole in the same manner and by the same process as in the case of the original parole if in the judgment of the court there is a reasonable probability that the defendant thereafter will comply with the order of the court and also to again recommit for violation of such parole

No defendant committed to jail workhouse or other penal institution under the terms of this act shall be entitled to be discharged from custody by reason of his insolvency except that such defendant may be discharged from imprisonment for nonpayment of costs only under existing laws Provided That no such defendant shall be imprisoned for a period of more than three months unless there is a strong presumption that his failure to support parent wife child or children because of bad faith on the part of such defendant

Whenever any defendant shall be ordered to be imprisoned at hard labor under the provisions of this act there shall be paid by the official in charge of the penal or reformatory institution in which such defendant is imprisoned to the person designated in the order of the court as the proper recipient of such money to be disbursed by the said recipient as the order of court may direct the sum of [sixty-five cents] one dollar for each Sunday and legal holidays only excepted during which he remains imprisoned Such sum shall be paid as wages and shall be paid at such times and in such manner as other wages are paid by cities and counties and shall be charged as one of the general running expenses of such institution and if the labor done in such institution is not sufficient to pay the running expenses of such institution such sum shall be charged to and paid by the county from which such defendant was committed

Section 2 That so much of section six of the act approved the fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws four hundred four) entitled "An act relating to insolvency embracing among other matters voluntary assignments for the benefit of creditors and adverse proceedings in insolvency by creditors forbidding also certain preferences providing for the distribution of the insolvent's estate and in certain contingencies relieving him and others liable with him from further liability for his or their debts" as relates to the discharge of persons confined by sentence or order of any court upon conviction of fornication and bastardy or for desertion or non-support of wife child or children is hereby repealed

Section 3 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 45, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one and two of the act approved the third day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, (P. L. 508), entitled, "An act authorizing cities of the first class to condemn, enter upon, take, appropriate, occupy, and use street railway transit facilities and properties used and useful in connection with the transportation of passengers by street, underground, or elevated railway, motor bus, taxicabs, or trackless trolley, principally within such cities, and the franchises and leases for operating the same; providing the procedure therefor and for the determination by the Public Service Commission, subject to appeal, and subject to the right of trial by jury, of the amount of compensation to be paid for the properties, facilities, and franchises so taken; providing for the obtaining of the assent of the electors thereto and for the deduction from the indebtedness of such cities, in calculating their borrowing power, of such sum as may be required to be borrowed for said purposes; and empowering such cities to operate, maintain, use, lease, license, or contract for the operation of the facilities and property so acquired;" authorizing the condemnation and taking of the properties, facilities and franchises of any one company without condemning or taking all the properties, facilities and franchises pertaining to the entire system.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, in the first place I wish to thank the Chairman of the Committee, Senator Earnest, and the members of the Committee, for their action on this bill. After hearing the distinguished attorneys for the transit underliers, and especially, yesterday, Mr. Ballard, who is an eloquent advocate, it is certainly a compliment to have this Bill No. 45 reported out unanimously.

I have really two speeches on this Bill—one that I prepared about six weeks ago and wrote out, and that I thought would be a very pleasant and agreeable speech, but it has grown stale on my hands—and the speech I am now making, which is more or less impromptu.

The story of this bill goes back two years. Two years ago a member of the Public Service Commission came to my office with which is called the Daix Bill. That bill opened the door for the Public Service Commission to sit in judgment upon the underliers and appraise their value. I took the bill home and read it, and I wondered why a member of the Public Service Commission should be so much interested in legislation enabling him to sit, as a Commissioner, on the appraisal of the values of these underlying companies. I therefore refused to introduce the bill.

It is interesting, I think, for the Senate to consider whether this Public Service Commissioner is to be fired or not. You all know that the Supreme Court is the best friend of the Senate, and has added to our honors and responsibilities by entrusting the hiring and firing of the members of the Public Service Commission to this body. I approve very highly of this action, and I hope they will go on and give us some more functions of the State Government.

The Bill was passed, and the Public Service Commission duly met and made the appraisals of $139,000,000 for these underlying securities. The pessimists think they are worth about half that much in the open market—the award was somewhat generous, in their opinion.

Some time after that I read in my newspaper that the President of the Pennsylvania Railroad, General Atterbury, had held a meeting in his office one Sunday morning, and the newspaper said it was a secret meeting—I do not know how secret it was, as the newspaper said Mr. Greenfield was there and the Mayor was there and one of the Public Service Commissioners was there and Mr. Mitten was there and some of the attorneys were there—but these gentlemen were there, instead of going to church on Sunday morning, in General Atterbury's office, for a very, very philanthropic purpose: they were there to consult and decide how they could help their native city. You know—well, they were a group of publicists, altruists and philanthropists; in fact, I think we could coin a new word: you know, the Greek word for love is philo, and the Greek word for city is polo; so we could call them not philanthropists but philopolists—lovers of their city.

Shortly after this meeting I also read in my newspaper that General Atterbury would address City Council as to what was the best thing for the taxpayers; so I thought, as I pay over $100,000 a year in taxes, I had a right to go to this meeting. I was somewhat interested. So I attended the meeting, and I came in when the General was about halfway through his paper. He said several times that, in order to facilitate the great improvements of the Pennsylvania Railroad in West Philadelphia, the City of Philadelphia ought to acquire the franchise of the Market Street Elevated Railway.

When the General sat down I stood up—I thought I was just as big a taxpayer as he was—and I asked him, if the city required the franchise of the Market Street Elevated, why should the city not buy that one franchise and not buy the sixty others.

"Oh, but," he said, "according to the Daix Bill there is no choice; Philadelphia must buy them all."

I said, "Yes, but, General, I happen to be a member of the Legislature, and I would be very happy to put in an amendment to the Daix Bill which would enable Philadelphia to buy the underlying franchise which it needs and not buy the ones which it does not need."

Well, the General was then somewhat up a tree, but Mr. Hall, who was a leading member of City Council, came to his rescue. He said that the President of the Pennsylvania Railroad was a very important man, his time was very valuable; that he had given of his time and, as a great favor, had come to address the members of the City Council, and it was not fair for Dr. Woodward to cross examine General Atterbury. Therefore, I sat down.

Now, the attorneys for the underliers—one of them especially—say that we should not look at the ancient history of all these traction companies. This one attorney in particular said that that is ancient history, and, while it may have an ancient and fishlike smell, it should be forgotten. He used a very apt simile—figure of speech, saying that it was as so much water that had gone over the dam. Well, we in Philadelphia know perfectly well that that is a very, very apt figure of speech, because if there ever were a lot of watered stocks they are in those rapid transit underliers. Promoters have made fortunes as the pyramid rose to the topmost stone, which is the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company. Also "dam(n)" is very appropriate, as that is what they are saying all the time.

Another attorney, as you may know, said that Mitten Management has no love for these—I do not know whether it is fifty-three or sixty-three underliers. Every October the Mitten Management has to write out a check for $8,395,000, which goes to the treasurer of the Union Traction Company, and he distributes this money to all stockholders of the sixty-three, I think it is, underlying companies.

According to the distinguished constitutional lawyer, Mr. Roberts, it is a singular fact that all the owners of these securities are either widows or orphans. For about a year Drexel & Company, who are interested, have collected the assets of four-fifths, I believe, of the owners of these underlying securities; and, I suppose, on a morning like this, if you were to go to the corner of Fifteenth and Walnut, you would find the sidewalks obstructed by a group of women on one side and a group of men on the other—they are the widows and orphans waiting to hear the latest bulletin of the progress of this philanthropic proposal to bond the City of Philadelphia for $139,000,000, so that they may receive a generous price for their securities.

By this philanthropic arrangement there would be benefits for everybody. The City of Philadelphia would have a million dollars a year to spend on the police or anything, a million dollars clear; the underliers would receive a generous price for their securities; and the Rapid Transit Company would have one million and a half of dollars in taxes remitted annually. So you can see it is a perfect arrangement for all the parties in interest.

Now, this expression of Mr. Roberts as to the widows and orphans, I think was somewhat unfortunate. Cynical bachelors will say that almost all widows bear watching, and we have a widow in this Commonwealth who is a very old lady—she is called the "Lady of Philadelphia." She was 150 years old not many years ago, and did not deny her age except, perhaps, when she concealed it under the expression "Sesqui-Centennial," as you may remember. She there made what may be called an exhibition of herself on her 150th birthday. And the old lady requires watching, as some think, as, they say, she is somewhat extravagant and is somewhat susceptible to flattery.

Now, all these underliers, according to their attorneys, would like to see the old lady put on her sixty odd costumes and say they are all becoming. Some of us would like to see her with one of her old style dresses, and what they really want her to do is to buy this one, the Market street elevated—and, being elevated, it would be short in the skirt and would show her pretty knees;—instead of buying sixty old-fashioned costumes, she would buy this one.

Then, in conclusion I wish to say simply—I assume all responsibility for this bill, I haven't even asked the Governor if he has been strongly in favor of this bill—I want to see this bill go through, and I hope my brother Senators will do me the honor of passing it.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, on this particular bill I want to say a few words. It is a matter of considerable importance to the City of Philadelphia and particularly to its citizenship. It is a question involving a lot of tax propositions, a question involving whether or not the citizens of Philadelphia are to get anywhere near full value for the large amount of money asked for the purchase of these underliers. It amounts to $149,000,000. Conservative people have said the outside price set on these underliers would be $80,000,000. There is a difference of $69,000,000. And the peculiar proposition about the whole procedure is that nobody cares. The City Solicitor of the City of Philadelphia came up here and said he was neutral. The President of the Senate thought he was neutral on one side. The underliers do not care whether you buy their stock or not. The P. R. T. does not care. The City of Philadelphia, through its councilmen, says this thing ought to go through. "But," they further say, "we don't care."

Nobody cares and it is nobody's business. If nobody cares and it is nobody's business, then it is not any of our business; we are up here in this Legislature and should let the citizens of Philadelphia mind their own business. But the citizens of Philadelphia are not particularly anxious to burden themselves with a debt of $149,000,000, and I will tell you why. They have lost confidence in Mr. Mitten and his management and his dealing with the citizenship of Philadelphia; they have no confidence in him. They are his partners, and for years they have been trying to look into the books of this company to find out whether or not they, as partners of Mr. Mitten, have made any profits; and for years in courts, in councils, in every way imaginable he has prevented them from finding out whether or not, as partners they have earned any profits, or if they have lost money.

If you are in partnership with any man, if your interest is only a two per cent. interest—as a question of common honesty you have a right to know whether or not that partnership has been a success or a failure; and you have a right to have this partner show you his books. And it is only recently, when public opinion became so strenuous that neither the newspapers, nor advocates, nor lawyers could hold it back, and Council demanded this investigation, that they came across and agreed to open their books; but as yet the books have not been opened, and the citizens of Philadelphia do not know whether this partnership is good or bad. They have lost their confidence, they have lost their belief in the good faith of Mr. Mitten.

Mr. Mitten came to Philadelphia and he has done considerable good for the city so far as the transit business is concerned. Nobody can deny that. He has been a great manager and boss insofar as his employees are concerned. He has earned money for his stockholders. Nobody denies that. But he made one big mistake—he should have gone further and gotten the good will of the citizenship, his customers. This he forgot to get, and assumed another method to get control and power—instead of working down the line and getting the good will of the citizenship and the car-riders and the men and women who were his customers, to get the money for his workmen, he started to work from the top down, he started to get control of the political situation. He employed a man as a go-between, between his own office and the political powers in Philadelphia; and that man was no other than Albert M. Greenfield, a prominent real estate operator who became the agent of Mr. Mitten in all of Mr. Mitten's real estate transactions. And as a reward for that political authority which he assumed, and which he never had and which he never will have, he has been the intermediary, he has been the man to deprive the citizenship and the public of their rights, in order that he may be able to collect his commissions from Mr. Mitten as his real estate broker.

The City of Philadelphia and its citizenship do not expect, nor do they intend, nor do they agree, that their rights and privileges shall be sold by Mr. Greenfield to the P. R. T. Company. You ask me how that is done. It is done by no criminal procedure, because Mr. Greenfield is a business man and he will stay within the confines of the law; he will get himself into no trouble that way, he is too shrewd a man to do it. But what will he do? He will take the men who have directly or indirectly had some influence in the political situation of Philadelphia, and he will have them or their partners or their relations put on his payroll or on the payroll of the P. R. T. Company, and so subsidize these people that they cannot deliver to the citizenship of the City of Philadelphia that which they ought to have.

No man can be a public servant or hold a position of public trust and at the same time be an employee of a public service corporation; and it is by these underhanded methods this man Greenfield has tried to debauch the political situation of Philadelphia. I read here, a statement by Dr. Mitten in last night's Bulletin: Dr. Mitten made an address to a lot of people at 5 o'clock in the morning. To make an address like this he would have to make it at 5 o'clock in the morning, before the people were awake, so they would not know what was going on. So he made it early in the morning, before the people were really awake, and would not know what the situation really was, and he said the P. R. T. is not in politics, and the Mitten management cannot afford to hook up with factions—because he is to work in harmony with the faction that comes into power and he will have to work for them.

He ought not to work with any faction, he ought to work to win his people, and then he goes on to say that while the Monaghan-Greenfield combination was working with the Vare faction and the Vare faction was working with no one. I think that the facts today will indicate that the Vare faction is not aligned with Mr. Mitten

Then he goes on to say that Mr. Schofield, of the City of Philadelphia, as soon as he became Director of Public Safety, resigned as attorney for the Transit Company, but he did not tell you that the same day that Mr. Schofield resigned as attorney for the Transit Company Mr. Schofield's partner was appointed as attorney for the Transit Company, nor does he go on to tell you that the rest of Schofield's partner's law firm, of which Mr. Greenfield's brother-in-law is a law partner, had a contract for representing the subway builders in Philadelphia for a period of four years. The result is that they received a salary of twenty-five thousand dollars a year.

So, it is by this undermining system, the breaking down of the very foundations of the political government of our city that Mr. Mitten and Mr. Greenfield endeavored to cheat the public and fool the people. Whether they are giving them a dollar's worth of service for a dollar now we don't know, but there is one thing certain—they don't believe them.

Then Mr. Greenfield told us further, in order that he may be still stronger, and in order that his political influence in the government and public office may be greater—and I may say here now that this man Greenfield by his actions is more dangerous than any Emma Goldman ever was, because Emma Goldman came out boldly and said she was an anarchist, she told it to the public so that they might hear what her theories of the Government were; but this man Greenfield works from within, he bores at the vitals of the Government; he is not the kind of citizen that can be of any great value to this community,—if he is a citizen. I doubt very seriously whether he is a citizen,—I think he will have that to prove. But he is not satisfied to abide with the political situation in Philadelphia, he goes stronger and further, and tries to influence with the State Government. I don't say that these things are criminally wrong, but I do say they are not for the best interests of all the people.

I have photostatic copies of letters, which I will read to you, in which he, through his influence, had the P. R. T. engage Eric Fisher Wood as consulting architect at a salary of $833.00 a month, paid by the P. R. T.; and that salary goes on until Mr. Wood is no longer Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, and when he quits as Chairman of the State Executive Committee the P. R. T. refuses to pay any more,—I don't know why! And then Mr. Greenfield takes it up with the P. R. T. Company to straighten out why Mr. Wood does not receive his $833.00 a month. He may be a consulting architect, but why should the P. R. T. have to go to Pittsburgh or anywhere else to get a consulting architect? I don't know. But he was chairman of the State Republican Executive Committee,—and he is no longer chairman, thank God for that; the State organization will not have anything to answer for. But he got $833.00 a month for being consulting architect, or did he get $833.00 a month for being a political architect? I don't know. That is for you to decide. The letters are here. When he did not get his money Greenfield took it up, and said that he advised the P. R. T. Company of the advisability of keeping up the contract. I don't know whether they kept it up or not,—I was not lucky enough to get any more photostats along that line. Maybe they kept it up and may be they did not; but there is one thing sure,—when Mr. Mitten gets the good will of the people of Philadelphia, when he plays fair with his riders, when he plays fair with its citizenship, and comes to the conclusion that he is not dealing with political factions but is dealing with the people, and deals honestly with them, deals fairly with them and gives them a dollar's worth of service for a dollar paid to him, I will be shouting for Mitten. But until that time and until he gets rid of this wolf in sheep's clothing, I will fight Mitten as long as I have an opportunity to do it,—and I will fight the P. R. T.

What we want, if we can get it, is honest officials, honest government and not hypocritical demonstrations and statements by a man such as this Greenfield, who says he wants to be a leader of a different type. God save us from such a type.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, after having heard these two distinguished politicians speak, I have some slight hesitancy in expressing myself upon this bill, but you may recall that I have the proud distinction of representing probably the largest central district, in point of population, in the United States, composed approximately of 550,000, west of the Schuylkill River in West Philadelphia, and I think that they are probably as intelligent and as independent a set of people as we have in Philadelphia or the State of Pennsylvania. We have been rather antagonistic to the Rapid Transit Company, because of inadequacy of service in West Philadelphia and because of various reroutings that have taken place, which have interfered with the convenience of the community, and I want to draw a picture of West Philadelphia for this body. West Philadelphia extends from the Schuylkill River to the county line. At 32nd and Market streets we have a convergence up Lancaster Avenue from the northwest, feeding that great section of Overbrook and the Main Line, we have Market street coming directly from the west leading out to that wonderful section of 69th street and beyond, out to West Chester, and from the southwest we have Baltimore Avenue and Woodland Avenue, coming in Woodland Avenue to 32nd and Market and Baltimore Avenue at 39th street and taking in all that vast section, Media, Darby, Chester, Swarthmore and out in that direction we have a great inpouring of transit, vehicular traffic, automobile and trolley into what is known as the neck of the bottle at 32nd and Woodland Avenue. We have an elevated line on Market street running out to the county line to which we of West Philadelphia have been opposed and which we have been trying to get rid of for years. Two years ago the Daix bill was passed in our Legislature and then started what appeared to us in West Philadelphia as a movement to relieve the stagnation of Market street that would do away with the Chinese wall, and east of the river, which would bring a new station to 32nd and Market streets, involving an expenditure of $50,000,000 by the Pennsylvania Railroad, and involving an expenditure by the City of Philadelphia of upwards of $14,000,000 involving the erection of a post office opposite the station, involving the expenditure by the United States Government of upwards of $8,000,000.

As a result of the Daix Bill hearings were held and a valuation of $139,000,000 was fixed as the price of the underliers. We have lost sight, I think, in this discussion of the fact that we are not saddling upon the City of Philadelphia a burden of $139,000,000, because the first essential step necessary to the taking over of these underliers at this price is a certificate from the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County that this will not be a borrowing charge against the City of Philadelphia, and that it will be certain that the debt, interest and sinking fund charges will be taken care of out of the income received by the city. However, we proceeded on our way in West Philadelphia to the accomplishment of our desire, when this bill of Senator Woodward was introduced.

I am reminded of the remark that was made about Lucretia Blankenburg after a bitter all-night session with the late Senator McNichol, which finally resulted in harmony and the next morning she is supposed to have said "Politics makes strange bed fellows", and I have been rather surprised to see what politics is doing in this chamber, just as we were reaching what we thought in West Philadelphia were the accomplishment of our desires, because in this vast improvement was contemplated there the putting of the Eelevated underground to 45th street or to 63rd street, or even to 69th street when the Woodward Bill comes along.

I am disposed to believe Owen Roberts when he says that if this Woodward Bill is passed he will fight it to the United States Supreme Court. I am of the opinion that if this Woodward Bill is passed that we will never have the Courts of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County say that the money which will have to be spent, the money which will have to be borrowed by the City of Philadelphia to condemn the Maret Street elevated line cannot be charged off to the borrowing capacity of the City of Philadelphia.

I want to direct the Senate's attention to the fact that as of June 30th, 1919, there was a valuation had of the Transit System in Philadelphia for the purpose of regulating the affairs, and that hearing was had at a time when the Honorable J. Hampton Moore was Mayor of the City of Philadelphia, one of the bitterest antagonists of the Rapid Transit Company and you men who have any experience in eminent domain cases must realize that when experts are employed they have a tendency to lean at least slightly towards those who employ them, and notwithstanding the bitter antagonism of Mayor Moore ,the City of Philadelphia, as of June 30, 1919, admitted the valuation of the Market Street Elevated of over $45,000,000, and I believe now if we pass this Woodward Bill and step into a real valuation of the Market Street Subway, we will find that because of the increased price in construction, the increase in equipment that has gone into that structure and into the equipment itself, we will be confronted with addition of probably fifty or sixty million dollars and in one elevated structure alone, and in addition to that I dread and I fear the expense which will be added and the consequential damage which will be claimed by the Union Traction Company for taking out of their system what is known as its backbone. However, as a citizen of West Philadelphia and considering the best interests of my constituents, I believe that the passage of this bill means four or five years delay in the accomplishment of that which we want in West Philadelphia.

You may have read in the papers accusations of sectionalism in our city, and, therefore, just for a brief moment, I am going to speak, not only as the Senator from West Philadelphia, but as a citizen of the entire City of Philadelphia. If we undertake in Philadelphia to take these underliers piecemeal, we are going to, just as sure as the sun is shining today, we are going to put upon the citizens of Philadelphia an increased tax rate, because you have got to pay these charges out of income and we cannot have them charged off. But in addition to that, we have now in contemplation, by the aid of the State, the widening and extending of the approaches to the Delaware River bridge, we have in contemplation the placing of Fifth street under the bridge, we have also in contemplation, we must meet it very shortly, the absolute necessity of taking the grade crossings of the trolley lines off of our beautiful parkways, the congestion is getting such now that it will be only a very short time when that must be done. We have also before us the question of what we are going to do with the Chestnut and Walnut street lines for the purpose of completing our subways, and, therefore, I say to this chamber that I believe it is the duty of us all here, particularly in view of the fact that we are from time to time insisting upon the rights of the people, I say it is our duty and our obligation to give the people of Philadelphia an opportunity to express themselves, because after all is said and done the question before the citizens of Philadelphia, when it come to that, is for them to vote, at a referendum, upon the question of whether or not they want to take these underliers in their entirety, and, therefore, as a representative of this great section of Phialdelphia, I as opposed to this bill and must vote against it.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, in reply to the Senator from West Philadelphia, I want to state I know and I am surprised that he does not know that the people in his district are for this bill. He ought to know it and my best opinion is,—I may be wrong,—that it is political suicide for him to oppose this bill. I know, and he ought to know, and I believe down in his heart he does know, that the people of Philadelphia are for the passag of the Woodward Bill.

Now, what will the Woodward Bill do? All it does is this, it adds to the Daix Bill the right for the people to say whether we want to buy all these underliers or whether we want to buy one. Do you suppose if you were to go into Wanamaker's store to buy one shirt, they would say to you "buy sixty shirts or get out of here"? That is not business. The Daix Bill makes them buy all or none. The Woodward Bill says "buy one or as many as you want". Why are these people opposed to the Woodward Bill? The whole proposition involves the question of six or seven blocks in West Philadelphia. There are six or seven blocks of elevated railroad that are tying up all this property we are talking about. The City of Phialdelphia in 1925 agreed and contracted to tunnel under the Schuylkill River, not on the ground or the property of the Union Traction Company, but on their own ground, to build a subway under the Schuylkill River and all they ask of the Company is "Leave what you have got and come down into our tunnel, change your franchises to that extent, and no more. They will not do it; they will not do it because they think they can make us spend $149,000,000 to get control of six or seven squares of rights that years ago our forefathers gave then for nothing.

What is going to happen if we pass the Woodward Bill? I will tell you what is going to happen; they are all going to get together, the City of Philadelphia, the P. R. T. and the Pennsylvania Railroad and they are going to put a subway tunnel under the Schuylkill River bridge. There is going to be no amendment before the public. There is going to be no vote of any kind, they are going to get together and give the citizens of West Philadelphia, which my friend is so much interested in, that which they want. That is what is going to happen, they will get together as soon as the Woodward Bill is passed, because what we are doing is at least taking the blackjack out of their hands and getting hold of the handle. We are not taking it completely out of their hands, but we are holding the handle so that they cannot bang us over the head for $149,000,000. They will have one of those Sunday morning meetings and get together. This will be a Saturday afternoon meeting and it will be a peace meeting, a jubilee and all these things can be done without any further ceremony and we will have our elevated tracks under the Schuylkill River and West Philadelphia will have all the transportation it wants and it will not cost them a nickel.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I want to speak just one minute. Senator Frazier raised the question of delay. There will be a delay, no matter what happens. The distinguished attorneys for the underliers contend that the Daix Bill is constitutional, but the Woodward Bill is unconstitutional. That can be determined in six months, according to the Declaratory Judgment Act. That it will be a delay of only six months in regard to the constitutionality of the Bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

BILL OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 487, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article three section twenty-two of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 528, as follows:

An Act to amend section two and three of the act approved the eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred and nine (P. L. 470) entitled "An act to prevent the manufacture and sale of adulterated or misbranded drugs defining the word "drug" prescribing penalties for violation of this act and the method of its enforcement" as amended

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section two of the act approved the eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws four hundred seventy) entitled "An act to prevent the manufacture and sale of adulterated or misbranded drugs defining the word 'drug' prescribing penalties for violation of this act and the method of its enforcement" which was amended by the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred sixty-four) entitled "An act to amend the act approved the eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred and nine entitled 'An act to prevent the manufacture and sale of adulterated or misbranded drugs defining the word "drug" prescribing penalties for violation of this act and the method of its enforcement'" is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 2 That the term "drug" as used in this act shall include all medicines and preparations recognized in the [ninth] ten revision of the Pharmacopoeia of the United States the [fourth] fifth edition of the National Formulary or the American Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia for the internal or external use and any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for the cure mitigation or prevention of disease of either man or other animals

Section 2 That section three of said act which was last amended by the act approved the the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws four hundred fifty-eight) entitled "An act to amend sections three and four as amended of an act approved the eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and seventy) entitled 'An act to prevent the manufacture and sale of adulterated or misbranded drugs defining the word "drug" prescribing penalties for violation of this act and the method of its enforcement'" is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 3 That for the purpose of this act an article shall be deemed to be adulterated

First if a drug is sold after the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine [under or by any name] which is recognized [by] in the tenth revision of the Pharmacopoeia of the United States the fifth edition of the National Formulary or the American Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia [it] and differs from the standard of strength quality or purity as determined by the test or formula laid down in the tenth revision of the Pharmacopoeia of the United States the fifth edition of the National Formulary or the American Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia Provided That no drug defined in the tenth revision of the Pharmacopoeia of the United States the fifth edition of the National Formaulary or the American Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia except [official] the preparations [of opium iodine peppermint camphor ginger and ethel nitrit] in which any such drug may be an ingredient in the formula thereof shall be deemed to be adulterated under this provision if the standard of strength quality or purity be plainly stated in juxtaposition with the official standard of strength quality and purity upon the bottle box or other container thereof although the standard may differ from that determined by the test or formula laid down by the tenth revision of the Pharmacopoeia of the United States the fifth edition of the National Formulary or the American Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia

Second If the strength or purity fall below the professed standard or quality under which it is sold

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 783, as follows:

An Act to amend sections three and ten section twenty-two as amended and sections twenty-three twenty-three B and twenty-five of the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and sixteen) entitled "An act defining fraternal benefit societies and their status authorizing such societies to create subordinate lodges and to pay benefits to members and their beneficiaries from funds collected and regulating such benefits and collections providing for the organization and incorporation of such societies and for their supervision regulation and examination by the Insurance Commissioner and for the admission of foreign societies designating tables of mortality as a basis for rates of contribution requiring all societies to make annual and other reports and appointing the Insurance Commissioner as attorney for service of process providing penalties for any violations of the act exempting such societies from taxation and certain other societies from its provisions and requiring beneficial associations other than fraternal benefit societies to report to and be supervised by the Insurance Commissioner and repealing existing laws"

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section three of the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and sixteen) entitled "An act defining fraternal benefit societies and their status authorizing such societies to create subordinate lodges and to pay benefits to members and their beneficiaries from funds collected and regulating such benefits and collections providing for the organization and incorporation of such societies and for their supervision regulation and examination by the Insurance Commissioner and for the admission of foreign societies designating tables of mortality as a basis for rates of contribution requiring all societies to make annual and other reports and appointing the Insurance Commissioner as attorney for service of process providing penalties for any violations of the act exempting such societies from taxation and certain other societies from its provisions and requiring beneficial associations other than fraternal benefit societies to report to and be supervised by the Insurance Commissioner and repeal existing laws" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 3 The laws of every such society from and after three years from the date of the passage of this act shall provide that if the stated periodical contributions of the members are insufficient to pay all matured claims in full and to provide for the payment of its benefit fund obligations valued upon a valuation by one of the standards authorized in section twenty-three or section twenty-three B of this act and for the creation and maintenance of the funds required by its laws additional or increased rates of contribution [may] shall be collected from the members to meet such deficiency [Such laws may also provide that] or each certificate shall be charged with it proportion of any deficiency disclosed by the valuation [hereinafter] herein specified with lawful interest thereon

Section 2 That section ten of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 10 The funds from which benefits shall be paid and the funds from which expenses of the society shall be defrayed shall be derived from regular monthly or other periodical rates of contribution paid by the members of the society and accretions of said funds and no part of any funds set aside for the payment of benefits shall be used for expenses other than expenses incurred in investigating or defending claims against such benefits funds Except as herein otherwise allowed every domestic society shall invest its funds only in securities permitted by the laws of this Commonwealth for the investment of the reserves of life insurance companies and shall keep and maintain all such securities at a place within this Commonwealth No cash of any domestic society shall be kept held or deposited in a banking institution or otherwise in any other State or foreign country except upon the approval of the Insurance Commissioner first obtained in writing

Section 3 That section twenty-two of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 22 Before the Insurance Commissioner shall refuse to license any foreign society or shall revoke its authority to do business in this State he shall furnish to such society a concise statement of his reasons for such proposed refusal or revocation and give notice of a time and place of hearing at which such society may show cause why a license should be granted to it or why the license granted to it should not be revoked as the case may be

Upon request made to the Insurance Commissioner by such society he shall issue subpoenas to summon such witnesses as the society may desire to summon and upon the filing of a petition by such society duly verified by oath showing that the testimony of certain persons named therein is competent and relevant to the issues to be heard by the Commissioner and that such persons are outside the State of Pennsylvania he shall appoint a suitable person duly qualified by law to administer oaths as a commissioner to take the testimony of such persons at such place or places specified in the petition as the testimony of such witnesses may be obtained Such testimony shall be taken upon oral examination and cross examination or upon written interrogatories and cross interrogatories as the Insurance Commissioner may determine and when so taken shall be reduced to writing and certified to the Insurance Commissioner by the commissioner so appointed and shall be made a part of the record of such hearing before the Insurance Commissioner The cost of issuing said subpoenas shall be paid to the commissioner by the society

Any notice of hearing required by this act shall be sufficient if sent by registered mail addressed to the society or to its president at its principal office in its home state territory province or county A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings had before the Insurance Commissioner at any hearing and all testimony taken at such hearings shall be reported stenographically and the completeness and accuracy of the record shall be certified by the Insurance Commissioner

All decisions rulings and findings of the Insurance Commissioner made under this act together with a statement of his reasons therefor shall be reduced to writing and filed in his office and he shall serve a copy thereof upon the society by registered mail addressed to the society or its president at its principal office in its home state territory province or country and the action of the Insurance Commissioner shall be reviewable upon appeal to the court of common pleas of Dauphin County in the following manner

Any Society aggrieved by any decision ruling or finding of the Insurance Commissioner may file within thirty days thereafter in the court of common pleas of Dauphin County a petition against the commissioner officially as defendant alleging therein in brief detail the action and decision complained of and praying for a reversal thereof Thereupon a summons shall issue returnable in ten days and shall be served with a copy of the petition upon the Insurance Commissioner On or before the return day the commissioner shall file an answer in which he shall allege by way of defense the grounds of his decision He shall also on or before the return day of such summons certify to the court of common pleas of Dauphin County the record of the proceedings to which the petition refers Such record shall include the testimony taken thereon the findings of fact and conclusions if any made by the commissioner based upon such testimony a copy of all notices and statements of reasons issued and served by the commissioner in the proceedings and a copy of the decision ruling or finding of the commissioner with his statement of reasons which the petition calls upon the court to reverse The cost of preparing and certifying such record shall be paid to the commissioner by the petitioner and taxed as part of the costs in the case to be paid as directed by the court upon the final determination of the case

Upon the filing of the commissioner's answer the case before the court of common pleas of Dauphin County shall be at issue without further pleadings and upon application of either party made thereafter the case shall be advanced and heard without further delay Mere technical irregularities in the procedure of the commissioner shall be disregarded

Such appeal shall not be supersedeas nor stay further proceedings by the Insurance Commissioner unless otherwise ordered by the court of common pleas of Dauphin County upon such terms and conditions as said court shall determine and then only in the case of an appeal from a decision ruling or finding of the commissioner revoking the authority of any such society to do business.

The case shall be heard upon the record certified to the court by the commissioner Additional testimony shall not be taken by the court but the court may in proper cases remit the record of the commissioner for the taking of further testimony

From the decision of the court of common pleas of Dauphin County an appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania as in other cases

In the case of any appeal or other proceeding for review heretofore taken from the decision of the Insurance Commissioner refusing to license any such society or revoking its authority to do business and now pending and undetermined in any court of this Commonwealth the court may make an appropriate order remanding the decision ruling or finding appealed from the Insurance Commissioner with directions to proceed in conformity with the provisions of this act and the making of such order shall restore the status of the appellant society as it was before the making of the decision ruling or finding appealed from

[Nothing contained in this section or in sections sixteen or twenty of this act shall however be taken or construed as preventing any such society from continuing in good faith all contracts made in this Commonwealth during the time such society was legally authoized to transact business herein]

Upon the revocation of the authority of any such foreign society to do business in this Commonwealth the Insurance Commissioner shall either reinsure all its business and contracts then in force in this Commonwealth or shall permit such society to continue in good faith all such contracts and business

Section 4 That section twenty-three of the said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 23 Every society transacting business under this act shall annually on or before the first day of March file with the Insurance Commissioner in such form as may require a statement under oath of its president and secretary or corresponding officers of its transactions for the calendar year standing on that date and shall include therein all accrued liability under unpaid claims where notice was received by the society at its home office before the end of such calendar year and the same were approved for payment before the filing of the report No society shall be required to include in such report any claim or claims notice of which had been received by the society at its home office before the end of such year. It shall also furnish such other information as the Insurance Commissioner may deem necessary to a proper exhibit of its business and plan of working. The commissioner may at other times require any further statement he may deem necessary to be made relating to such society

In addition to the annual report herein required each society shall annually report to the commissioner a valuation of its benefit fund obligations in force on December thirty-first last preceding excluding those entered into within the year for which the report is filed in cases where the contributions for the first year in whole or in part are used for current expenses Such report of valuation shall show as contingent liabilities the present mid-year value of the promised benefits provided in the constitution and laws of such society under certificates then subject to valuation at not more than the average rate of interest earned on its invested assets during five calendar years preceding the date of such annual report less such portion thereof as may have been assumed by other associations or companies and as contingent assets the present mid-year value at the same rate of interest of the future net contributions provided in its constitution and laws as the same are in practice actually collected

From the above resulting balance may be deducted the present worth at the same rate of interest of the probable future annual savings in death losses below the estimated mortality in the mortality table used in said valuation calculated on the basis of the average annual savings in death losses during the five calendar years preceding the date of such annual report

In lieu of the above valuation any society at its option may show the net value of its benefit fund obligations subject to valuation at the rate of interest as hereinbefore provided and said net value when computed in the case of monthly contributions may be the means of the terminal value for the end of the preceding and of the current certificate years from which said tabular values shall be deducted such portion thereof as may have been assumed by other associations or companies and in addition there may be deducted the present worth of the probable future annual savings in death losses as specified in the preceding paragraph

Every such valuation report shall include as a contingent liability an estimate made by or on behalf of the society of the probable future payments under unpaid claims notice of which was received by the society at its home office before the end of the calendar year covered by the annual report but which has not been approved for payment at the date of such report

Deferred payments or instalments of claims whether involving a life contingency or not shall be included in the valuation report as contingent liabilities on the happening of the contingency upon which such payments or instalments are thereafter to be paid All such liability shall be the present worth of such future payments or instalments at the average rate of interest earned by the society during the five calendar years preceding the date of such annual report

Each valuation report shall be certified by a competent accountant or actuary or at the request and expense of the society verified by the actuary of the department of insurance of the home State of the society and shall be filed with the Insurance Commissioner on or before the first day of June succeeding the submission of the last preceding annual report

The minimum standard of valuation for all benefit fund obligations except for disability and dependent benefits shall be the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality hereinbefore referred to or at the option of the society by any other standard table or a table based upon the society's own experience of at least twenty years and covering not less than one hundred thousand lives with an interest assumption of not more than the average rate of interest earned on its invested assets during the five calendar years preceding such annual report

Every valuation report shall set forth clearly and fully the mortality and interest basis and the method of valuation Any society providing for disability benefits shall keep a separate account of the same in its said valuation report shall charge as a liability the balance to the credit of such fund or funds at the date of such valuation Where a combined contribution table is used by a society for both death and permanent and total disability benefits the valuation may be of death benefit only and in such case a separate accounting shall not be required

A report of such valuation with such explanation as the society may deem advisable shall be printed and mailed to each beneficial member of the society not later than July first of each year in lieu thereof may be published in the society's official paper and the issue containing the same mailed to each beneficial member of the society [The valuation herein provided for shall not be considered or regarded as a test of the financial solvency of the society but each society shall be held to be legally solvent so long as the funds in its possession are equal to or in excess of its matured liabilities]

Section 5 That section twenty-three B of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 23B In lieu of the valuation hereinbefore required any society may value its certificates on a basis herein designated "accumulated basis" by crediting each member with the net amount contributed for each year and with interest at approximately the net rate earned and by charging him with his share of the losses for each year herein designated "cost of insurance" and carrying the balance if any to his credit The charge for the cost of insurance may be according to the actual experience of the society as applied to a table of mortality recognized by the law of this Commonwealth and shall take into consideration the amount at risk during each year which shall be the amount payable at death less the credit to the member

Unless specifically provided in its constitution or laws no charge shall be carried forward from the first valuation hereunder against any member for any past share of losses extending the contributions and credit If after the first valuation any member's share or losses for any year exceeds his credit including the contributions for the year the contributions shall be increased to cover his share of the losses

Any such excess share of losses chargeable to any member may be paid out of a fund or contributions especially created or required for such purpose Any member may transfer to any plans adopted by the society with net rates on which tabular reserves are maintained and on transfer shall be entitled to take such application of his credit as provided in the laws of the society Certificates issued rerated or readjusted on a basis providing for adequate rates with adequate reserves to mature such certificates upon assumption for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this Commonwealth shall be valued on such basis herein designated the "tabular basis"

Provided That if on the first valuation under this section a deficiency in reserve shall be shown for any such certificate the same shall be valued on the accumulation basis

Whenever in any society having members upon the tabular basis and upon the accumulation basis the total of all costs of insurance provided for any years shall be insufficient to meet the actual death and disability losses for the year the deficiency may be met for the year from the available funds after setting aside all credits in the reserve or from increased contributions or by an increase in the number of assessments applied in the society as a whole or to classes of members as may be specified in its laws Savings from a lower amount of death losses may be returned in like manner as may be specified in its laws

If the laws of the society so provide the assets representing the reserves of any separate class of members may be carried separate for such class as if in an independent society and the required reserve accumulation of such class to set part shall not thereafter be merged with the assets of other classes of the society

A table showing the credits to individual members for each age and year of entry and showing opposite each credits the tabular reserve required in the whole life or other plan of insurance specified in the contract according to assumptions for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this Commonwealth and adopted by the society shall be filed by the society with each annual report and also be furnished to each member before July first of each year

In lieu of the aforesaid statement there may be furnished to each member within the same time a statement giving the credit for such member and giving the tabular reserve and level rate required for the transfer carrying out the plan of insurance specified in the contract No table or statement need be made or furnished where the reserves are maintained on the tabular basis For this purpose individual bookkeeping accounts for each member shall not be required and all calculations may be made by actuarial methods

Nothing herein contained shall prevent the maintenance of such surplus over and above the credits on the accumulation basis and the reserves on the tabular basis as any society may provide by or pursuant to its laws nor be construed as giving to the individual member any right or claim to any such reserve or credit other than in manner and as expressed in its constitution and laws

If the valuation of the certificates as hereinbefore provided shall show that the present value of future net controbutions together with the admitted assets is less than the present value of the promised benefits and accrued liabilities such society shall within three years from the date of the passage of this act [have the power] either [to] collect additional assessments or [to] increase the rates of contribution from the members to meet such deficiency [and such society shall also have the power to] or classify its members according to the adequacy of the rates they are contributing and charge each class with its proportion of any deficiency disclosed by [a] any such valuation

Section 6 That section twenty-five of said act be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 25 Any person who shall solicit membership for or in any manner assist in procuring membership in any fraternal benefit society not authorized to do business in this Commonwealth shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than [fifty] five hundred nor more than [two hundred] one thousand dollars Any officer agent or employe of any society neglecting or refusing to comply with or violating any of the provisions of this act the penalty for which refusal or violation is not specified shall upon conviction thereof be fined not exceeding [two hundred] one thousand dollars

Section 7 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

HOUSE MESSAGE.

HOUSE CONCURS IN RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR SENATE BILL No. 192.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate, as follows:

In the Senate, March 6, 1929.

RESOLVED, (if the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 192, Printer's No. 40, File Folio 163, entitled "An act authorizing and empowering counties which have acquired land for one purpose to appropriate and use so much thereof as is not required for such purpose for another purpose for which it has been or shall hereafter be authorized to acquire land," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 12:56 P. M. until 9 o'clock P. M., Monday, March 11, 1929.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, March 6, 1929.

The House met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Aaron B. Hess) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Dr. Martin W. Schweitzer, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the means of grace. We bless Thee for the ministry of prayer and the priceless privilege of communion with Thee.

May we this morning have that lowliness of spirit which will permit us to enter into the vast inheritance of Thy grace. May we lay aside all feelings of pride and self-sufficiency.

Help us to come unto Thee like thristy Pilgrims who have found the springs. Wilt Thou graciously give us the water with Thy own hands.

Most Gracious Father, who hast made of one blood all nations of men, may we never harden our hearts against any but grant us an universal charity towards all men. Let Thy laws be written in our hearts. Forgive us our sins. Cleanse our hearts. Exalt our aims. And accept us all. We ask it in His name. Amen.

BILL ON FIRST READING.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. Dunn, seconded by Mr. Baily, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section seven of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws six hundred thirty-nine) entitled "An act relating to the right to practice medicine and surgery in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and providing a Bureau of Medical Education and Licensure as a bureau of the Department of Public Instruction and means and methods whereby the right to practice medicine and surgery and any of its minor branches may be obtained and exemptions therefrom and providing for an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act and providing for revocation or suspension of licenses given by said bureau and providing penalties for violation thereof and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith" which was amended by the act approved the second day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws one hundred nineteen) entitled "An act to amend section seven of an act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws six hundred and thirty-nine) entitled 'An act relating to the right to practice medicine and surgery in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and providing a Bureau of Medical Education and Licensure as a bureau of the Department of Public Instruction and means and methods whereby the right to practice medicine and surgery and any of its minor branches may be obtained and exemptions therefrom and providing for an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act and providing for revocation or suspension of licenses given by said bureau and providing penalties for violation thereof and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith' commonly known as 'The Medical Practice Act' by providing for the annual registration of all persons duly qualified and licensed to conduct the practice of medicine or any of the allied branches thereof in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania" is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 7 All persons who have complied with the requirements of the rules and regulations of the board and who shall have passed a final examination and who have otherwise complied with the provisions of this act shall receive from the Department of Public Instruction acting for the said board a licensing certificate entitling them to the right to practice medicine and surgery or special branches of medicine and surgery as provided for in section six in this Commonwealth which said license certificate shall be duly registered in the office of the Department of Public Instruction of this Commonwealth in a record book to be properly kept for that purpose and which shall be open to public inspection and a certified copy of said record shall be received as evidence in all courts in this Commonwealth in the trial of any case Provided That this section relating to certificates to practice medicine and surgery shall not apply to officers in the regular medical service of the United States Army and Navy or the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service while in discharge of their official duties or to any one who may be a duly registered practitioner of medicine in any State or Commonwealth who may be called upon by a registered physician of this Commonwealth to consult with him in a case under treatment or any one while actually serving as a member of the resident medical or surgical staff of any legally incorporated or State hospital And providing further That any duly registered practitioner of medicine residing in any State near the boundary line between said State and this Commonwealth whose practice extends into this State shall have the right to practice in this Commonwealth at the discretion of the board provided he files with the secretary of the Board of Medical Education and Licensure of this Commonwealth a certified copy of his registration in the State where he resides and provided that the Board of Examiners of the adjoining State reciprocate by extending the same privilege to practitioners of medicine and surgery in this Commonwealth in which case he shall receive from the secretary of the board created by this act a licensing certificate issued by the said board but which shall be automatically revoked if he changes his said residence or office of practice A record of all persons so licensed shall be kept in the archives of the Department of Public Instruction at Harrisburg and shall have the standing before the law of any other license issued by the said Department for the Board of Medical Education and Licensure In these records shall be registered the names and addresses of each person duly qualified to conduct the practice of medicine or any of the allied branches of the healing art as provided for in this act in Pennsylvania

And it shall be the duty of all persons now qualified and engaged in the practice of medicine or any of the allied branches of the healing art or who shall hereafter be licensed by the Department of Public Instruction for the Board of Medical Education and Licensure to engage in such practice in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to be registered with the said Board of Medical Education and Licensure in the Department of Public Instruction as practitioners on or before the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six and thereafter to register in like manner annually on or before the first day of January of each succeeding year The form and method of such registration shall be provided for by the said Board of Medical Education and Licensure in such manner as will enable the Board of Medical Education and Licensure to carry into effect the purposes of this act

Each person so registering with the Board of Medical Education and Licensure shall pay for each annual registration and for the certificate hereinafter provided for a fee of one dollar or such other sum as may be fixed by the Department of Public Instruction under authority of law which fee shall accompany the application for such registration The money thus received [shall be available for the use of the said Board of Medical Education and Licensure for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this act against unlicensed illegal and unregistered practitioners] shall be paid into the State Treasury for the use of the Commonwealth

Upon receiving a proper application for such registration accompanied by the fee above provided for the Department of Public Instruction acting for said Board of Medical Education and Licensure shall issue its certificate of registration to the applicant Said certificate together with its renewals shall be good and sufficient evidence of registration under the provisions of this act

Any person who shall practice medicine or any of the allied branches of the healing art which come under the provisions of this act without having been registered in accordance with the provisions of this act shall on conviction thereof before any magistrate alderman or justice of the peace in the county where the offense shall have been committed be subject to a fine of not less than ten dollars and not more than one hundred dollars to be collected by summary conviction as like fines are now collected by law or in case of non-payment of the fine to undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding ten days Provided That any person so convicted shall have the right of appeal as in any other case of summary conviction

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 1, page 6, line 12, by striking out the word "pracfice" and inserting in lieu thereof "practice"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

NAYS—1.

Donnell,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 790, (Senate Bill No. 59), as follows:

An Act providing for the checking and testing of liquid measuring devices machines and meters used for the purpose of measuring liquid fuels ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power prescribing duties in connection therewith upon owners lessors and operators of such devices conferring powers upon inspectors of weights and measures and providing penalties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the term "liquid measuring devices" as used in this act shall be construed to mean all liquid measuring devices machines mechanisms or meters adapted to measure liquid fuels ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power and which are so used in retail business for unit deliveries of less than fifty gallons.

The word "operator" as used in this act shall mean any person association copartnership or corporation owning or leasing such liquid measuring devices and employing the same in the retailing of liquid fuels.

Section 2 Every operator of a liquid fuel measuring device in this Commonwealth shall at least once every week test the accuracy of the quantity automatic indicator of such device by drawing from said device not less than five gallons of liquid fuel and measuring the same in some standard container the gauge of which is graduated not less than twenty cubic inches above and below zero and comparing the amount registered by the automatic indicator of said device with the quantity so drawn out

Section 3 It shall also be the duty of every operator of a liquid fuel measuring device in this Commonwealth in all cases where such device is not in constant daily use covering a period of twenty-four hours to prime such device each morning before any sales of liquid are made by said operator

Section 4 The operators shall thereupon note the results of said tests upon a duplicate chart or report indicating whether such automatic measuring device registered a greater or lesser quantity than the amount of liquid fuel actually drawn together with the date and time of the test and the amount of liquid fuel used in such test the name or brand of the liquid fuel and the name and serial number of the liquid fuel measuring device The duplicate chart or report herein referred to shall be prepared on forms furnished by the county commissioners of each county for the county inspectors and by each city for the city inspectors upon forms prepared by the Bureau of Standard Weights and Measures of the Department of Internal Affairs of the Commonwealth and shall be furnished in sufficient quantities by the said agencies and the local inspectors of weights and measures to each operator in the respective districts

Section 5 Each operator shall keep true and accurate records of every test made on the chart or report showing the tests made and keep these records on file at his or her place of business for the inspection of the county or city inspectors or the Director Assistant Director or the Deputies of the bureau of standard Weights and Measures Department of Internal Affairs and mail these records at the end of each month to the County Commissioners or Mayors of the respective districts If any such test shows a variation greater than the variation permitted by the rules and regulations of the Bureau of Standard Weights and Measures of the Department of Internal Affairs of this Commonwealth it shall immediately be re-tested and if it again shows such illegal variation the use of such liquid measuring device shall be discontinued until corrected

Section 6 Any inspector of weights and measures of the city or county or any Director Assistant Director or any Deputy of the Bureau of Standard Weights and Measures of the Department of Internal Affairs of this Commonwealth shall have access at all times during the period of the day when such liquid measuring device is being operated to make such test or checks as to him shall seem necessary and to inspect the duplicate charts or reports in the possession of the operators

Section 7 Any person association copartnership or corporation failing or neglecting to keep such duplicate charts or reports or keeping the same fraudulently or operating any liquid fuel measuring device when he knows the same does not correctly indicate the quantity delivered or refusing access to his charts or reports or otherwise violating any of the provisions of this act shall be subject to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or more than fifty dollars ($50.00) to be collected by summary proceedings before any alderman magistrate or justice of the peace All fines collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the treasury of the Municipal sub-division in which the offense was committed

Section 8 This Act shall become effective on the first day of July 1929

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. READER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of a hearing.

ARTICLE XVIII

INTERPRETATION EFFECTIVE DATE AND REPEALER

Section 1801 Constitutionality It is the intention of the General Assembly that if this Act cannot take effect in its entirety because of the judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction holding unconstitutional any part or parts thereof the remaining provisions of the Act shall be given full force and effect as completely as if the part or parts held unconstitutional had not been included herein

It is the intention of the General Assembly that if any court of competent jurisdiction shall hold unconstitutional any provisions of this Act transferring to a department board commission or officer the powers and duties heretofore exercised and performed by another department board commission or officer the provisions transferring such powers and duties shall thereby become inoperative and that in such event the department board commission or officer heretofore exercising such powers and performing such duties shall continue to exercise and perform them The remaining provisions of this Act shall in any such case be given full force and effect

Section 1802 Continuance of Existing Laws The provisions of this Act as far as they are the same as those existing laws shall be construed as a continuation of such laws and not as new enactments of a department board commission or officer are enumerated and defined such enumeration and definition shall not be construed to be in derogation or limitation of the powers and duties heretofore exercised and performed by such department board commission or officer unless

(a) Any power or duty as enumerated and defined is clearly inconsistent with the exercise of a power or the performance of a duty heretofore exercised or performed or

(b) There is a specific statement that a power or a duty heretofore exercised or performed shall be exercised or performed by another department board commission or officer or that such power or duty shall be exercised or performed in a different manner

Section 1804 Effective Date This Act shall take effect on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine

Section 1805 Repealer All acts and parts of acts supplied by this act are hereby repealed but this act is not intended to repeal any act or part of an act relating to the settlement assessment collection or lien of any State tax bonus or license fee if the effect of such repeal would be to relieve any person association or corporation of any tax bonus or license fee now payable by such person association or corporation

If any court of competent jurisdiction shall hold that any tax bonus license fee or other money payable to the Commonwealth or any officer or agency thereof cannot be settled assessed or collected under the procedure provided by this act such tax bonus license fee or other money shall continued to be settled or assessed and collected under the laws in force prior to the passage of this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that this bill is up for final passage at this time?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from York is informed that is the position it stands in at this time.

Mr. SPANGLER. The question in my mind in respect to this bill being considered at this time is whether or not the House has had an opportunity for the reading of the bill and the proper consideration of it.

It seems to me that a bill of this importance should not be hurried through the Legislature and that the members of the House should have an opportunity to study the bill and to acquaint themselves with its provisions before the bill is finally passed. I presume that the bill is in satisfactory form, but I am not prepared myself to say that it is and I am not prepared at this time to say whether or not there are some provisions in the bill that I or some other members may have some objections to. It seems to me that no unworthy purpose will be served if the consideration of this bill is postponed for the present until we have an opportunity to acquaint ourselves with its provisions.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is no desire on the part of the sponsor of this bill to deprive any member of the House of an opportunity to understand all of its provisions. It is true that the bill is of very great importance to the Commonwealth and consequently to every member of this House, and it is likewise true that the bill exactly in the form it now appears in the file has been on the file, if my recollection serves me correctly, at least for a period of three weeks; not less than two weeks. The bill in the House, you will remember, has not been called up for second reading for two weeks and it was purposely left on the second reading calendar so that every member of the House could have an opportunity of studying the bill and presenting any questions that he might have concerning it either to the sponsor or to other members of the Ways and Means Committee. The Ways and Means Committee considered the bill yesterday. The only changes that have been made in it from the time it was first introduced down to the present moment were corrections of printers' typographical errors and omissions. It does seem to me that sufficient time has passed since the bill was first introduced to allow every member of the House an opportunity to have studied the bill and I feel that the importance of the passage of this measure to the business of this Commonwealth; the position in which we now stand as respecting the adjournment of this Legislature, is such that if this bill is not considered now, a full legislative week will be lost in its consideration. All these things, members of the House and Mr. Speaker, I believe justify consideration of the bill at this time.

I have some notes from which I will be very glad to explain to the members of the House to the utmost of my capacity any points that may be in their minds. It might be advisable, with permission of the House, that I proceed now to explain, as I understand it, what this bill really seeks to do and what it will not do.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPANGLER. I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia what objections there would be to postponing the final consideration of this bill until next Monday night or next Tuesday? In the meantime that would give the members of the House an opportunity to acquaint themselves more intimately with the provisions of the bill.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I tried a moment ago to make it clear to the members of the House that if the bill is not considered now it will cost it just one week, legislatively speaking. If the consideration of this bill is deferred until next Monday night or Tuesday, it will not reach the Senate until the following day. It has grown to be a custom this session that the Legislature adjourns about noontime on Wednesday. Consequently, it must be anticipated that the Senate will not consider this bill next week, and if that is true, assuming that it does consider it one week following next week, you have the result that this bill will lose the advantage of a full week of this Legislature. I don't want to press or urge in any wise the consideration of the bill at this time except by and with the consent and approval of this entire body, but I do want to point out to you that this piece of legislation is one of three pieces doubtlessly the most important that this Legislature of 1929 will have the honor to consider.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in view of the fact that this bill is of such prime importance, and we all recognize it as such, it seems to me that it might be made a special order for Monday night. The bill provides for the creation of an entirely new department in the State government and as yet the members of this House have not had an opportunity to ascertain what that will actually mean in the way of increased personnel, in the matter of expense, and in a great many other details. This bill will not go into effect, as I understand it, before next July, and for that reason if the bill is considered and finally passed on Monday night it will defer action on the bill probably only two or three days, or possibly a week. As I said a moment ago, because of the vast importance of this bill, not only to the Commonwealth, but also to the working, as you might say, of the machinery and its effect on the machinery of the Administration, it seems to me that the members of the House should have an opportunity to concentrate their attention upon its provisions for the purpose of determining in their own minds whether or not the bill is in the form that the members desire it to be. My experience in the House heretofore has always been that on a bill of such importance as this a special order was made for its consideration. That gives everybody an opportunity to consider its provisions and to know what their position is with respect to it.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the parliamentary situation as we now stand, there is nothing before this House except the consideration of this bill on final passage. The discussion so far has been as to whether or not this bill should be considered for final passage. If a motion had been made to postpone the consideration, I presume that all that has preceded this discussion would be in proper place.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I understand the question before the House is the final passage of House Bill No. 915.

The SPEAKER. The question before the House is on the final passage of House Bill No. 915.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, this bill was introduced into the House on February 11th. Immediately following its introduction there was a meeting of the Committee on Ways and Means to consider the bill. At that meeting Mr. Schnader, Deputy Attorney General, appeared before the committee and explained in detail the provisions of the bill. The committee questioned Mr. Schnader very carefully and very thoroughly on its various provisions. I am sure that all members of the committee, I venture to say unanimously, agreed that the bill was a constructive piece of legislation. I am sure that had the gentleman from York been present and heard the explanation and heard the discussion which followed by the various members of the Committee, that he would have been as thoroughly satifised as we were, that this bill was being given the consideration that its importance warranted. Now, I would say, that in the absence of that experience, that the members of the House might not fully understand the provisions of this bill. But on hearing the bill explained and discussed, I am sure that the members of the House can impose confidence in their Committee on Ways and Means who are prepared to say that this is a good and constructive piece of legislation; that it is in proper form; that it undertakes to do nothing that is revolutionary other than to set up a very thorough system for the collection of moneys due the Commonwealth. I hope that the members will see fit to act on this bill now, finally, and give their vote in support of the measure.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe I too am one that has found himself somewhat in the position of the gentleman from York. There are one or two points on this bill upon which I have not found myself altogether satisfied in my own mind. They involve minor substitute changes in the bill. Last night, however, I received the assurance of the sponsor of the bill, who is also the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, that if we should act today and pass this bill through the House, that it would not mean that objections or suggestions of real importance would be altogether lost.

If we pass the bill today it goes to the Senate, and upon the assurance of the sponsor of the bill that any real objections will receive full consideration before this Legislature acts finally upon the bill, I consented to go along with the reporting of the bill from the Ways and Means Committee last night so that we might have action upon it in the House today. If there is any other member here who has serious doubt in his own mind, upon any point in this bill, I am perfectly willing to promise to co-operate with him to the end that these objections may be fully considered before the bill actually becomes law. If we vote upon it at this time we will simply act in the larger interests of the Commonwealth in expediting the passage of a most constructive piece of legislation. I feel that any minor objections which we would like to raise at this time can very well be deferred and taken up in an organized form when the bill has been sent along a little further on its way. I promise the gentlemen of the House that as far as I am concerned I will be only too happy to co-operate with any one who has objections to a minor point of interest in this bill, once we pass upon the bill. Will the gentleman from York withdraw his objections?

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have listened to the gentleman from Forest with a great deal of interest. This thought of sending bills to the Senate with the idea that the Senate is going to whip the bill into form before the House has had an opportunity to assert itself as to the various provisions that have been brought up in committee, I consider rather bad practice. It seems to me the House before it passes legislation over to the Senate should first assure itself that it is in the form that the House desires it to be.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I don't want in any way to cut off the discussion that is before this House, but it seems to me that that discussion should be in parliamentary order. My friend from York is now again discussing the question whether or not the House should consider this bill now. The House as I understand it, has before it now only the question as to whether or not the bill should pass finally, and if my friend from York will permit the suggestion, and if he desires this discussion to continue, then it seems to me it must follow a motion to postpone the bill.

MOTION TO MAKE HOUSE BILL 915 A SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 915, file folio 884, on today's calendar, be made a special order for Monday evening at 9.30 o'clock.

Mr. EDE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the remarks of the gentleman from Forest, Mr. Wheeler, seem to be one reason, and a very good reason, why we should postpone action on this bill at this time. If any member has a doubt in his mind that the bill has not had sufficient consideration, then it should wait until it does have sufficient and final consideration. I entirely agree with the gentleman from York, Mr. Spangler, that we should postpone this bill until Monday night.

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am of the opinion that this bill should be postponed as the member from York has asked, for the reason that I presented an amendment to this bill last evening, and I happened to fail to be at the committee meeting. I was informed this morning that that amendment would likely be considered in the Senate. I was asked by Mr. Schnader and told that that amendment was a very good amendment, that it did not conflict in any way with the Auditor General's right but it gives him the privilege if it was necessary to put on extra accountants. If it is in order I would like Mr. Sterling to read for the information of this House that amendment so this House will know what is expected of them and in my opinion that ought to be done so that the House may know what one of its members thought ought to be put in the bill. I have been promised that the Governor will consider that amendment and if it meets with his approval it will go in and be considered. For that reason I believe this House should postpone the bill or make it a special order. It will give the members of the House time to learn what I believe they should know. I presented a very good amendment. The amendment would prevent the Auditor General from employing outside accountants. It also gives the Auditor General power to employ as many accountants as he needs as regular employees.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think we ought to take time on this important measure. I am for it but I am not satisfied with all of its terms. If that amendment I presented is not satisfactory, all right, put it out, but I would like to have this House understand before we attempt to act upon this bill what that amendment is. Now if it is in order I would like Mr. Sterling to read that amendment.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, in regard to this bill, we have in this House almost seventy new members. This bill was brought in here forty-five minutes ago and laid on our desks, and out of respect to the seventy-two new members I believe this bill should be held over until Monday night in order to give them an opportunity to acquaint themselves with it. There are a number of men who do not understand the workings of this House and I oppose laying a bill on our desks and after forty-five minutes expect people to act on it. I would request the members of the House to vote aye on the motion to place upon special order of business for Monday night, House Bill No. 915.

Mr. LINTON. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been on our calendar since February 11th and we have been assured by the sponsor of the bill that there are but a few minor changes, so, therefore, we won't know any more next week than we do now. I am one of the new members; I will not know any more next week than I know now, and I think as one of the new members we ought to act on it now.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, what I am going to say is repetition. I do want to call to your attention, when you consider the motion as now before you, that you consider it fairly from the point of view of this bill and its importance, not so much its importance to the government or to the business of this Commonwealth, but the importance of the proceeding of this Legislature as it now relates to the time at which we now stand against the time of adjournment. This is the sixth of March. By resolution we are bound to adjourn on the eighteenth day of April. We have yet but a handful of legislative days in which to consider all important legislation. The Administrative Code will follow this bill. The general appropriation measure will also follow this bill. There are dozens upon dozens of important pieces of legislation that wait the passage of this bill, because they are all related and interdependent one upon the other. You will understand from that what I meant a bit ago when I said to you that if you did not consider this bill today on final passage, it will impose a hardship of one legislative week, and it may be—and I say this advisably—it may be responsible ultimately for a different date of adjournment. Now the matter is for you. We ought to be prepared now to discuss the merits of the bill. It has been on the calendar since the eleventh day of February. My friend from Allegheny speaks of consideration of the new members of the House. I have the utmost consideration for them and I want to help them wherever I can, but the truth remains that this bill has been substantially in the form in which it now is upon your calendars and has been on the file since the eleventh day of February, as it now is, excepting possibly typographical errors and one or two inconsequential omissions by the printer. For these reasons it seems to me that it would be the better part of wisdom for this House to now consider this measure upon final passage rather than have the motion to make it a special order for next Monday evening prevail.

Mr. EDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not want to oppose this bill, but I personally feel that this matter is of such importance to our members here in the House that we ought to cast at least a half intelligent vote when we pass it. The measure before us today, if we cast our vote either aye or no, will force us to vote without knowing exactly what we are doing. In other sessions of the Legislature we have had legislation which was as important as this bill, and which has been made a special order for certain days, and we have done that so that we could consider the bill and so that we could properly represent our constituents. We cannot by voting on this bill today tell our people what is included in there and we are not properly representing them. I feel that the matter of delaying a week is not one so important to this legislation as it is to the question of an intelligent vote and so our people are taken care of. I am not opposed to the measure but I want to know what I am voting for. I think the gentleman ought to realize that we have five more legislative weeks and he knows, from experience, we can get any measure through the Legislature in two weeks. All that the gentleman from York has asked for, and he is not asking for anything unfair, he has asked for fairness, so we may have an opportunity to study this bill as it now is and the amendment and give it an intelligent vote next Monday night and I ask the members of this House to vote aye on the motion.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if I correctly understand the purpose of the motion, it is that the membership shall have a further opportunity to consider the provisions of this bill. I am very sure that I would be the last one to urge undue haste in the passage of legislation so important as this. The bill was introduced on the eleventh of February. It was reported from the Ways and Means Committee on the eighteenth day of February. And since that time it has been before the House for the consideration of the members. In addition to what has already been said, at a meeting of the Ways and Means Committee, Mr. Schnader, who drafted the bill, appeared before that committee and my recollection is that he stood upon his feet for more than an hour explaining in detail every provision of this bill. He was most carefully interrogated at the time by the members of that committee, and he answered every question which was put to him. I am, therefore, of the opinion that the most ample opportunity has been given for the consideration of this bill. It has been urged that the bill can be passed in a week or two weeks, and that is true, but as has been stated by the sponsor of the bill, it is not only the provisions of this bill which are depending here but it is the provisions of other bills, bills in the Committee of Appropriations, that must await the dtermination of this legislation. For this reason I feel that the House should act finally upon the bill at this time in order that the orderly procedure of the legislation may be had.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker, I have no comment to make on how I shall vote, whether for or against the bill, but I want to say to the members of the House, that I have made, so far as I am capable of doing, what I believe to be a very careful study of that bill. I am not at this moment prepared to say to the public or to this audience, and I trust nobodv may follow me in it; I am not prepared to say how I shall vote on this bill at this time, with due deference to everybody concerned. I want to say that after a careful study for more than two weeks of this particular bill, I am unable at this particular moment to say how I should vote on this and do that in justification to myself and my constituents.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. I will take the word of the member from Indiana and I want to say that if after two weeks study of this bill he feels incapable of voting on the bill at this time, how could we expect the membership of this House to do that thing by postponing it for a matter of a day or two more. I want to say to the members of the House that I sympathize with the member from Indiana, and I say that with all respect to him. I know that he is of great legal attainment; he is the leading lawyer in his county and when we who are only laymen here have a measure such as this before us what must we do? We must call before our committees men who understand these propositions, and that is exactly what has been done with this bill. We must listen to their explanations and that is what has been done. I might say to the members of the House now that we are as well prepared to vote on this bill now as we ever will be and I hope, Mr. Speaker, that the motion to postpone or to make the bill a special order will be defeated and that we will proceed to vote on the bill.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the efforts on the floor of this House of administration leaders to rush this bill through is just a part of that menace that we are faced within every Legislature; the laws being made by the administration or its departments and O K'd by the Legislature while we are the real law making body. The members of this House who are in doubt about this bill are not those of the administration forces. The courtesy that is due any member of the House to have a little more information on any bill is being withheld by this group who are trying to railroad this bill through. I took the bill home with me on the train to Pittsburgh, a trip of six hours, and gave the bill careful study, I took it to some bankers who are interested. I have not had time get their answer. There may be other members who would like information and advice from their constituents at home. I protest against the efforts to rush this bill through when there is a doubt in the minds of so many members as to its advisability at this time.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, This has only been my third session here but in that short time I have found that I as well as other members of this House have never been able to find the time to follow up all of the legisation that has gone through this House. This bill has been before this Legislature since early in Februaray, it was before the Committee on Ways and Means with an expert to explain in detail every item of this bill. The gentlemen who have been offering objections to this bill have sat in that same committee without offering any objections, without asking any amendments. The members of this Legislature who are so concerned about their constitutents back home and feel that they will not be able to explain whether their votes are right, whether aye or no, have had so much time or have not had so much time to take into consideration the merits of this bill up to the present time that they now want the bill postponed one week and they find that they must jump into the harness on the home stretch and try to explain the merits of this bill to their constituents back home and find out how they shall vote. To me this bill is a masterpiece of legislation. It is a piece of legislation that has been long needed in this State. I feel that by postponing this bill, or the action on this bill, one week is not going to help this body in the Legislature one iota and therefore, Mr. Speaker, I would like to see this bill be voted on or have final action on it at this time.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I hesitate to impose on the time of this House on the motion that is now before us, but I cannot refrain from rising to my feet and subscribing fully to the remarks made by the lady from Allegheny. If in any measure I am a doctrinaire it is in that I believe that the respective departments of this Government should stand independent one of the other, for if there is any man in this House who believes that the Legislative branch of the Government should think and act for itself without respect to the judgment of the executive branch of the government, I am willing to confess myself that man.

Consistent with that policy of my own, as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, I arranged to have the draftsman of this measure, Mr. Schnader, Deputy Attorney General, come before the Ways and Means Committee several weeks ago and submit himself to an examination on the various provisions of the bill. I want to say to the House parenthetically, and in so stating I do not want in any measure to impugn the motives of my friend, Mr. Spangler from York, that he too was present at the time when Mr. Schnader stood before that committee. I hold in my hand here a transcript of the testimony that was taken at that meeting. It consists not only of a detailed narrative by the draftsman of the bill, but as well of questions and answers by the various members of the committee to Mr. Schnader. The Ways and Means Committee has considered this bill carefully. It believes that it will be the most forward step in the government of this Commonwealth which has taken place in a long period of years past. It does not seem to me the House would be justified in tarrying along in the final consideration of this bill at this time. I urge that the members of the House vote down the motion made by the gentleman from York.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman whether the transcript of the proceedings of that meeting were distributed to any members of the House.

Mr. STERLING. They were distributed to every member of the Ways and Means Committee but not to the members of the House.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by the following: Messrs. Spangler, Haws, Voltz, Metzinger, Fockler, Witkin, Burns, Conner, Heffernan, Emhardt, Myers, Greeby, Wm. Boud Smith, Linton, Sautter, Swartz, Sowers, Stuadenmeier, Leidich, Bechtel, and others.

The SPEAKER. More than twenty members having joined in moving the previous question.

On the question,

Shall the main question be put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DENGLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the sponsor of the bill, the gentleman from Philadelphia, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DENGLER. Do you have at hand what the indebtedness would be that this would throw upon the Commonwealth if this piece of legislation was enacted; what it would cost the State?

Mr. STERLING. I understand that if this bill is enacted into law it will make no substantial change in the cost of the operation of the Government.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill No. 915, should be considered in connection with bills 916, 917, 918, 919, 920 and 1065. Together they comprise what has been termed the Fiscal Code. In the 1927 session this Legislature enacted into a law a measure which created the Department of Revenue as a distinct Department of Government. This bill establishes the procedure by which the Department of Revenue will function. What it does in effect to co-ordinate the method of collecting the revenues of the Commonwealth. It draws from the various sources all the revenues of the Commonwealth into one Department of the Government, and by that Department all moneys and funds, and revenues are transmitted to the State Treasurer. If that alone were all that this bill proposed to do I submit to you that it ought to be passed without the bat of an eye lash, because you will all agree with me that whether it is a public business or whether it is a private business, co-ordination makes unquestionably for the smooth running of that business.

This act, as my friend from Elk County said, is not in any manner or way revolutionary. It does not change the rate of taxes or license fees, or any other fees, or fines, now established by law. It does not in any manner impair or imperil or reduce the appointive power of the Fiscal Officers of this Commonwealth, otherwise known as the State Treasurer and the Auditor General. The act does not in any manner change the method of collection of inheritance tax or mercantile tax or brokers' licenses.

What does the act actually do? It does this: First of all it transfers from the Auditor General's Department the settlement and collection of taxes, corporation taxes, to the Department of Revenue. It transfers from the Insurance Department, the collection of certain insurance taxes. It transfers to the Department of Revenue the collection of motor license fees. It transfers to the Department of Revenue, or rather coordinates the collection by the Department of Revenue of all State moneys, collected by State institutions, boards, departments and commissions. The Bill provides that in the several State institutions, boards, and commissions, through which State moneys have heretofore been collected, this Department of Revenue shall assign an agent who will be the agent of the Department of Revenue, specifically charged with the duty of collecting moneys, that are State moneys, and to transmit them to the State Treasurer. In some instances it might require a full time agent to do that work, but we are informed, reliably informed, that in many instances where the work of such an agent will not be arduous that the Department of Revenue will take one of the employes out of such State institution, board, commission or department, as the case may be, and designate that person as the agent for the Department of Revenue for the collection and transmission of State funds.

What effect upon the Commonwealth will that arrangement have? In many instances we are informed State institutions, penitentiaries, hospitals, homes and the like, collecting moneys for maintenance and upkeep purposes, sale of property and other things, that money is never transmitted to the State Treasurer, but we as members of the Legislature, session after session appropriate to such institutions less money than it takes to maintain them, and they in turn are obliged to use this State money, which never is transmitted to the State Treasurer, to make up the difference between what we appropriate and what it actually takes to maintain that institution. I ask you whether in your judgment that change is likely to benefit the Commonwealth? I ask you whether or not this is not a step forward toward putting the business of this Commonwealth on a better, firmer and more orderly and business-like basis.

This bill takes off of the statute books all of the special funds, and establishes 33 in number, special funds, that we have had heretofore, with the exception of one, the military fund, and establishes those funds as permanent special funds and protects the revenues that come into the special fund for those special funds. You may for a moment think that 33 special funds is a large number, but I want to point out to you that of those 33, 10 are in the Teachers' Retirement Fund or system and the State Employes Retirement Fund, so that subtracting the 10 from the 33 it sets up really only 23 special funds.

What does this bill do to the Auditor General's Department? I have already said that it does not in anywise impair, imperil or reduce the appointive of the Auditor General and I repeat that. What then does it do in the Department of the Auditor General? It defines the Auditor General's duties to be this: That he will audit the books of the various departments, boards and commissions of this Commonwealth at least once in every year, and more often if he is so requested to do by the Governor. The Auditor General is also under this bill obliged to audit the accounts of county treasurers, and city officials, where they are designated as agents of the Commonwealth, and as well the books and accounts of magistrates, aldermen and justices of the peace.

The Bill has this very, very worthy attribute in my opinion. The Auditor General will audit the accounts of institutions to which appropriations are made by this Legislature session after session, and he will ascertain, for the Legislature, whether or not these institutions or outside agencies have applied and expended the money so appropriated for the purpose intended by the appropriation, and if he ascertains that these institutions and outside agencies have not spent the money so appropriated for the purpose intended, the act then provides—and this I want you to mark—the act then provides that no further appropriations shall be made to this outside agency or institution until out of their own funds they have expended a sum equal to the sum previously appropriated to them and not spent in accordance with the purpose intended by the appropriation. I ask you again, members of the House, whether in your opinion that is not a step forward; whether or not that is putting the business of the Commonwealth on a firmer, more orderly and more business like basis.

This act does not change the method of issuing dog licenses, hunter's licenses and game licenses. These licenses, as heretofore, will be issued by the County Treasurers, but the parapharnalia will be transmitted by the Revenue Department.

What does the act do with respect to the State Treasurer? It simply writes into the law that which has heretofore been the established practice in the Department of the State Treasurer. It defines definitely how the State Treasurer shall deposit the funds and how such depositaries shall be nominated. It defines how the State Treasurer shall care for the $80,000,000 of state securities.

What if any changes are made by this measure in the settlement and collection of corporate taxes? Under the present law taxes received by this Commonwealth from corporations are settled by the Auditor General and approved by the State Treasurer. If this bill is enacted into law corporate taxes will be settled by the Secretary of Revenue and approved by the Auditor General. There are various changes made in the present procedure. They are purely procedure as they relate to the petitions or appeals made by tax payers on corporate taxes and from my experience and from the experiences that I have heard concerning this procedure. If this bill does anything it throws around the taxpayer a greater safeguard against the improper and inequitable and unjust settlement of corporate taxes.

What if any change is made by this measure in the personnel of the Board of Finance and Revenue? Just this change. In place of the Secretary of the Commonwealth being a member of the Board of Finance and Revenue, this act provides that the Secretary of the Department of Revenue shall be a member of the Board of Finance and Revenue.

These statements made by me seem to be what in my opinion this bill stands for. They seem to be what in my opinion this bill will do if enacted into law and with all the force that I have, and with all the sincerity that I have, I submit to you that in my judgment, considering the purpose of the bill, considering the care with which it was drawn, considering the capacity of the draftsman of the bill, I personally, if I never read a line of it, if I had never studied a point of it, would freely and willingly vote for its passage if I understood the explanation that was made to me. I understand the explanations well. I hope that I have not tired you with the explanations I have tried to put over to you. If there are any questions that come into your minds, I will answer them if I can. I want to say this finally, that in my opinion the passage of the measure will be to the everlasting credit of the 1929 session of this Legislature and I do hope that every member will avail himself of the opportunity to get that credit.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 922, as follows:

An Act fixing the damages for the conversion of property of fluctuating value

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 918, as follows:

An Act to amend section three of an act approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and ninety-eight) entitled "An act imposing a tax for State purposes on marine insurance underwriting profits and providing for the collection of such tax"

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section three of the act approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and ninety-eight) entitled "An act imposing a tax for State purposes on marine insurance underwriting profits and providing for the collection of such tax" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 3 Every insurer transacting such marine insurance in this Commonwealth shall file on or before the first day of June in each year with the [Commissioner] [of Insurance] Department of Revenue and in the form prescribed by [him] it a report of all the items pertaining to its insurance business as enumerated and prescribed in the preceding section of this act To determine the basis of the tax on underwriting profit every insurer which has been writing such insurance in this Commonwealth for three years shall furnish to the [Commissioner of Insurance] Department of Revenue a statement of all of the aforementioned items in the form prescribed by [him] it for each of the preceding three calendar years An insurer which has not been writing such marine insurance for three years shall furnish to the [Commissioner of Insurance] Department of Revenue a statement of all the aforementioned items for each of the calendar years during which it has written marine insurance

If the [Commissioner of Insurance] Department of Revenue finds the report of the insurer reporting correct [he] it shall if the insurer has transacted such marine insurance for three years (1) to ascertain the average annual underwriting profit as defined by this section derived by the insurer from its aforesaid marine insurance business written within the United States during the last preceding three calendar years (2) ascertain the proportion which the average annual premiums of the insurer from such marine insurance written by it in this Commonwealth during the last preceding three calendar years bears to the average total marine premiums of the insurer during the same three years (3) compute an amount of five per centum on this proportion of the aforementioned average annual underwriting profit of the insurer from such marine insurance and (4) charge the amount of tax thus computed to such insurer as a tax upon the marine insurance written by it in this Commonwealth during the current calendar year The [Commissioner of Insurance] Department of Revenue shall each year compute the tax according to the method described in this section upon the average annual underwriting profit of such insurer from such marine insurance during the preceding three years including the current calendar year namely at the expiration of each current calendar year the profit or loss on the marine insurance business of that year is to be added or deducted and the profit or loss upon such marine insurance business of the first calendar year of the preceding three-year period is to be dropped so that the computation of underwriting profit for purposes of taxation under this act will always be on a three-year average Provided however That an insurer which has not been writing marine insurance in this Commonwealth for the three years shall until it has transacted such business in this Commonwealth for that number of years be taxed on the basis of its annual underwriting profit on marine insurance written within the United States for the current calendar year subject however to an adjustment in the tax as soon as the [Commissioner of Insurance] Department of Revenue in accordance with the provisions of this section is enabled to compute the tax on the aforementioned three-year basis And provided further That in the case of mutual companies the [Commissioner of Insurance] Department of Revenue shall not include in underwriting profit when computing the tax prescribed by this section the amounts refunded by such companies on account of premiums previously paid by its policyholders

When the [Commissioner of Insurance] Department of Revenue has computed tax on an insurer's underwriting profit [he] it shall forthwith mail to the last known address of the principal office of such insurer a statement of the amount so charged against it which amount the insurer shall pay into the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue within thirty days after receipt of such notice from the [Commissioner of Insurance] Department of Revenue Provided however That in assessing taxes under the retaliatory provisions of section two hundred and twelve of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred eighty-nine) known as "The Insurance Department Act of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one" credit shall be allowed for any taxes paid or payable under this section

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 919, entitled:

An Act to amend sections three hundred two as amended, three hundred three, three hundred four, three hundred five, three hundred six, three hundred seven, three hundred eight, three hundred nine, three hundred ten, and twelve hundred one as amended, of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, (Pamphlet Laws three hundred fifty-nine) entitled, "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto" as amended.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question, shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EACHES. I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the sponsor of the bill, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. Yes.

Mr. EACHES. Will the gentleman kindly explain this bill. As a matter of fact the members of the House want to know why the game bill was reported out and did not go to the Game Committee, and what the meaning of the bill might be?

Mr. STERLING. This bill, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, is one of the bills complimentary to House Bill No. 915, which was passed this morning. It simply provides that the Department of Revenue will have an established contact with the county commissioners, to issue licenses. The Department of Revenue will furnish all of the paraphernalia to the county treasurers, and the county treasurers will as heretofore issue the licenses. The fund established by the fees will as heretofore go into the game fund.

Mr. EACHES. Very satisfactory.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask permission to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. Yes.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Sterling, isn't it a fact that on page 6 line 23 the Department of Revenue with the approval of the Governor can issue licenses itself, without the assistance of the county treasurers?

Mr. STERLING. In section 309, page 6, I assume that Mr. Davidson refers to those lines beginning with number 22 and ending with 25. It is a fact that the Department of Revenue reserves the right, as and when it shall determine it necessary, to change the system now prevailing. I am told, however, that there is nothing in the contemplation of the draftsman of this act to make any such change, but it was thought advisable in setting up a permanent department, such as this will be, to vest that department with power to make such changes as may be necessary to ordinate the collection of revenue from the various sources referred to in these bills. I want to point out to my friend that the theory behind these bills, is co-ordination in the collection of revenue, and not as has been suggested, centralization of power.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I just want to call your attention to this bill, to that one particular part of it. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, has said there is no intention at the present time, but we do not know when the intention is going to come up. There may be an intention after this House adjourns in April, it very likely will. I for one am opposed to centralization of power. I believe we still have a few rights in the State of Pennsylvania that belong to the citizens of the State, and I am opposed to any bill that takes that power from our citizens, or the game commission, who issues these licenses, the county commissioners, or any one else and place it in one department here in Harrisburg.

Mr. BICKETT. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of the bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. Yes.

Mr. BICKETT. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the explanation of this section, section 309, the licenses that are now issued by the county treasurers, of our various counties, may be issued in the future by this new Department of Revenue, is that correct?

Mr. STERLING. That is correct, and the act so provides.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of the bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. Yes.

Mr. KAHLE. What other mission does this bill have than to take away the power of having the treasurer collect this as they now do? In other words, it is only to centralize this. There is no other mission that I understand this bill would have; is there?

Mr. STERLING. I am not quite clear, Mr. Speaker, whether my friend has made a statement or has asked me a question, but in either event, I cannot clearly hear him in order to intelligently answer him.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that this bill is intended to centralize the collection of these revenues?

Mr. STERLING. I think I can anticipate your question and emphatically answer no, that is not the intention, as I understand it, and I think I understand it, to centralize the power for the issuing of licenses. It is for the definite purpose of co-ordinating the collecting of the revenues of the Commonwealth from this source, as well as from every other source that we have been discussing this entire morning.

Mr. KAHLE. Another question: What other mission does this bill have besides that one?

Mr. STERLING. To give the department of revenue supervisory power over county commissioners in the collection of revenue, and nothing more.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we live up in the country, and our treasurers receive this as part of their small salaries. You take this away from them and you are taking away the right from our own people to issue these licenses and putting it into a centralized power. Now, suppose I have a group of friends coming to visit me some day, and I want to take them out for a hunting or a fishing party. I cannot do that, because I cannot drive to the county seat and get them each a license. I must wait a week and send to Harrisburg for that license. I cannot see how the State will receive anything. In fact by trying to collect it at the head, when they can get it collected by the county treasurer for the small sum of ten cents, I think would be unjust to the people of the State, to take that right away and not be able to secure licenses from the county seat but have to secure them from the State.

Mr. BARTON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of the bill, if I may.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. Yes.

Mr. BARTON. Mr. Speaker, if it is not the intention of those four lines that are under discussion to take this power away from the county, away from the county treasurer, why do you insert those three lines in this particular bill?

Mr. STERLING. Because, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we must all realize that the game feature in this particular bill is only an incident to the larger plan that has been set up by all of these eight bills, and I assume it, and I assume it with confidence, that the draftsmen of this bill wanted to make as nearly perfect a job as possible, so that the revenue collecting department will be co-ordinated into one department. I feel very confident that there is no ulterior motive behind the three lines mentioned here. While I am on my feet I want to say to the men who are interested in this particular bill that particular consideration will be given to the inquiries that they make, on the other side of this Legislature, and consideration will also be given to substantative changes.

Mr. BARTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my colleagues brought out a point in regard to some of the smaller counties, that this ten cents, because they issue this particular kind of license relative to game, goes to make up part of the county treasurer's salary. There is no doubt in my mind but what that is absolutely true now about the county treasurers depending upon that ten cents as part of their salary, and it looks to me like if I should vote for this particular bill that I am going to take that ten cents away from my own county. You may think ten cents is a pretty small thing, and I realize that, but Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of this House, there are issued in some counties of the State of Pennsylvania perhaps in the neighborhood of two or three or four or five thousand licenses, and that ten cents amounts to something, and goes to make up part of the fund that remains in the county. If this license should be issued in Harrisburg, no doubt the ten cents will be taken away from the license fee, that the hunter will not need to pay, but then on the other hand if that be true the next question you must ask is, will it necessitate more than sixty-seven persons to keep track of this ten cent fee. If the number of employes that will be required to take care of this license that comes into Harrisburg on a centralized basis is more than sixty-seven employes of the State government to take care of it then I can see no reason for supporting the bill.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 920, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two hundred twenty as amended, two hundred twenty-one, two hundred twenty-two, two hundred twenty-three, two hundred twenty-four, two hundred twenty-five as amended, and two hundred eighty-five as amended, of the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARTON. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, this bill contains the same clause as that contained in House Bill 919. I think it is an imposition to a certain extent to take this away from where it is now, for it makes up part of the fees of the county treasurer.

I was the lone voter a while ago against 915, and I have no apologies to offer in regards to my vote but it seems to me this is an imposition upon the districts, for this makes up part of the fee of the county treasurer.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen, if we do not consider the fee at all, I think it is very unjust. As I have said before, if we would in haste want a fisherman's license, if we had a group calling upon us and we wanted to get up a little party to go up to the lake or along the river and fish, it will be impossible entirely to get a license in town. There will be many licenses not granted under this method that have been granted, because it will take almost a week, the same as it does for automobile licenses, in order to get a license to go fishing. There are many young folks, and old people in the country, that will not know just how to proceed, and it will not surely impose a fine upon them, that is, they will be required to go to a Justice of the Peace or secure somebody to apply for a license for them, and I think for the rural districts, it is unjust.
